BREEDLOVE IS FOUND GUILTY

Bonanza Farmer Will Be Sentenced On Friday For Assault and Battery Of Bonanza Merchant Last May

D. O. Breedlove was found guilty yesterday afternoon in the Circuit Court of D. V. Knutson of assault and battery on the person of George Sparr-storn, a well known Bonanza merchant on May 29th last. The case was commenced yesterday morning, arguments made and the jury rendered a verdict in a short time.

Breedlove, who is a rancher in that vicinity will receive his sentence next Friday. The law specifies a fine of fifty dollars to five hundred dollars and a jail sentence of not less than three months and not more than a year for this offense.

MANY REPEATERS AT MAGIC SHOW

The best recommendation that can be given an entertainment is to have the audience want to see it a second time and that is what is happening at the "Cunning" Magic Show running at the Houston Opera House. A very large share of those who attended the first performance were on hand again last night.

Professor Cunning accompanied his magic and illusionary acts with a humorous monologue and answered many questions put by the audience. The show is declared to be equal to anything of this nature given in Klamath Falls.

FOOD PRICES NOW HIGHEST IN HISTORY

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 23.—Retail prices of food increased 1 per cent in August, as compared with July, and reached the highest point in the nation's history, despite the government's campaign to reduce the cost of living, the department of labor's report shows.

The foodstuffs increasing in price were eggs, rice, potatoes, milk, pork chops, butter, cheese, coffee, dry beans, sugar and bread.

Prices declined for sirloin and round steaks, ribs and chuck roasts, onions, bacon, flour, cabbage and canned peas, corn, beans and tomatoes.

CAR SHORTAGE ACUTE IN OREGON.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Sept. 23.—(Special)—Millions of feet of lumber is being piled up in the yards of the mills in this section because of the lack of rolling stock to get it out. The shortage is becoming acute, and is said to be from 50 to 75 per cent of the demand.

At the Theatres

James Oliver Curwood, who wrote "Peggy, the Pirate," from which Lila Lee's new starring vehicle, "Such a Little Pirate," has been adapted by Monte M. Ratterjohn for screen work, is a writer who is well known to American readers. Mr. Curwood's many stories have won him a large following among the American magazine and book reading public and the many readers of "Peggy, the Pirate," will welcome a chance to see Patricia Wolf, the charming heroine, portrayed on the screen by the beautiful Lila Lee.

Miss Lee's sudden rise to fame has been one of the most extraordinary happenings of the year in the screen world, and she has fully lived up to the elaborate things that were predicted for her by her admirers. "Such a Little Pirate" will be shown at the Star theatre tonight.

"Better Times" is aptly titled.

If ever a screen carried a message of optimism and good cheer, this is one. Written by King W. Vidor, the brilliant young author of that notable success, "The Turn in the Road," "Better Times" has an individuality and charm that will not fail to please. It was produced by Firstwood for Robertson-Cole and is distributed by Exhibitors Mutual.

The story of a girl who, in spite of an environment of pessimism, rose superior to her depressing surroundings and made a success out of an apparent failure, is the theme around which revolve many amusing and heart-thrilling episodes.

Zsuzs Pitts, who plays Nancy Seeger, is a comedienne with a style all her own, and she succeeds in giving just the right touch of pathos to her earlier dramatic and dramatic-comedy line of play.

At The Liberty tonight.

Odd as it may seem all screen stars are not suddenly discovered, pounced upon by an admiring manager and immediately besought to sign a life contract at a fabulous salary. Alla Nazimova, the great Russian actress, who enacts a dual role in the great production of "The Red Lantern," now receives a salary that would make a bank president wonder how he was clever enough to make ends meet. But according to her own statement, Mme. Nazimova began her stage career by accepting an engagement for a season at a salary of $50 a month. "I was delighted at the time," she said, "but I would have been glad to take a big salary for a business."

The great Nazimova comes to The Liberty Theatre next Sunday in "The Red Lantern."

MAY SINK WELLS TO WATER STOCK

BEND, Ore., Sept. 23.—In an investigation of the possibility of sinking artesian wells in the Fort Rock section so as to increase the available range in the Des Chutes national forest, E. N. Kavenagh from the district forester's office in Portland and Supervisor N. G. Jacobson started on a trip through Fort Rock, Summer Lake valley and Passley.

A large area of potentially valuable range in the Fort Rock district cannot be used because of the long distance stock have to go for water.

By drilling wells, the forest officials hope to open up much new territory for the stockmen.

PRINEVILLE IS AFTER IRRIGATION SYSTEM.

PRINEVILLE, Ore., Sept. 23.—Plans were being formulated today for the organization of the Lone Pine Irrigation district, embracing about 2,000 acres of land, which is to be irrigated with water furnished by an extension of the Central Oregon canal, and conveyed across Crooked river canyon by a bridge to the lands which lie north of the river.
