Mint Jell

Try Mint Jiffy-Jell with roast lamb or cold meats. It is vastly better than mint sauce. Try Jiffy-Jell desserts with their real fruit flavors in essence form, in vials. Each is so rich in condensed fruit juice that it makes a real fruit dainty. Yet they cost no more than old-style gelatine desserts.

CHICAGO BOY MAY GET HOME BY ODD MEANS

PARIS, Sept. 24.—Joseph Fringer, a 13-year-old Chicago boy who was taken to Germany by his father in 1914, may be restored to his mother in the Illinois city, as a result of his adoption as a mascot by one of the American units at Coblenz. The boy's mother is Mrs. Emma Fringer of 38 Dearborn street, South Chicago.

He was brought by American military police the other day to the office of Captain Paul E. Peck, formerly dean of Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa, and now head of the home service work of the American Red Cross in Europe. Captain Peck learned that in 1910 the boy's father died and the mother remarried. Early in 1914 the stepfather, George Fringer, took the boy from Chicago to Germany. Then came the war

The stepfather entered the German army and was killed. For a time the boy made his home with relatives in Berlin and then drifted to Coblenz, where he attached himself to one of the regiments. The dough-boys helped him in writing a letter to his mother, who responded immediately, urging him to come back to her at once.

When the regiment left for America several unsuccessful efforts were made by his soldier friends to smuggle the boy aboard the transport, but each time he was detected and sent ashore. Finally he was sent back to Paris. The Red Cross took up the boy's case with the American passport bureau and has secured proofs of identity that will enable the boy to start for home and mother shortly.
