

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

WHAT IS IT?

It is the best paying class of advertising in the world if you have something to sell that belongs among little ads that you find in The Herald.

JUST TRY IT ONCE

If you have something in your attic, your basement, your spare room, your barn, around you anywhere that you want to sell, try The Herald classified ads and you will find a buyer.

IF YOU WANT SOMETHING

Advertise for it, trying The Herald's classified ads. Someone has something for sale that you want. Let The Herald find it for you. It costs you but a few cents a day.

Classified ads cost you 5 cents a line a day—five words to the line. They must be paid for in advance and cannot be received over the telephone—that is why they are so cheap.

KNOWN AS WITCHCRAFT TOWN

Salem, Mass., Has Never Been Able to Live Down the Much-Distilled Name.

Salem is nationally known as the witchcraft town of history, a title which it has been trying to live down for 200 years. Fortunately for Salem, the terror of witchcraft incantation is fading from memory.

Invariably the visitor comes to Salem with the idea of witches firmly fixed in his mind, but the only evidence of their existence that he can find is a woman bearing a tiny witch astride a broomstick. Besides buying witchcraft souvenirs, which Salem produces to meet the demands of visitors, there are other ways of satisfying witch-hunting ambitions.

To a person already keyed to a high pitch by vague recollections of witchcraft, Salem on a frosty moonlight night seems to slip back a century or so into the solemn superstitious little Puritan town, where one must think several times before making the most casual remark lest it be construed as evidence of friendly dealings with the evil.

Over by the cemetery the tombstones of the witch accusers gleam ghostly in the moonlight. It seems plausible that any of those venerable Judges of 1692 might glide suddenly into view and scold with dignity down the street that Mistress Sarah Good or Elizabeth How should appear and ask sternly if it was your ancestor that labeled her a witch.

Out on Gallows hill, too, there is "atmosphere" undiluted. Here 19 unfortunates convicted of witchcraft met their fate before Puritan common sense overcame Puritan fanaticism. Gallows hill is a monument to Salem's darkest days.

The French national library contains 75,000 books on the French revolution.
