SOME H. C. L. FIGURES

VIENNA, Aug. 28.—Depreciation of the Austrian crown on the world's exchanges causes some curious figures in buying. In the shop windows one sees cards on men's socks reading: "75 kronen". Ready-made suits of clothes or women's dresses are marked "2,500 kronen", a felt hat "300 kronen" and so on, while on real jewelry the cards run into the high thousands. The result is a loss of the sense of values on the part of the people, while the rapid fluctuations of the exchange make it impossible to keep a correct idea of actual costs.

'THE BRAT' RAN A YEAR IN N. Y.

The same company that has been playing the Curran Theater in San Francisco will present the Maud Pellon comedy success, "The Brat," at the opera house in this city October 3. The play is showing in the leading theaters of the coast by special arrangement with Oliver Morosco, the famous New York producer, under whose direction it made its New York debut, playing for a solid year at the Morosco Theater in New York, according to the press agent.

Miss Edna Roles is the leading lady of the cast of ten popular actors and actresses who are traveling with the comedy. The company will play two nights in Klamath Falls, the second evening offering the well-known drama "Dought and Paid For."

"We will be under considerable expense in keeping the local engagement," said M. M. Stern, advance man of the company, yesterday, "so we have arranged to play two nights here. We play at Redding, October 6, and, having an open date before appearing at Portland, it was decided to try out your local field. If we make a success of our two nights here, more big plays will be routed this way. This initial appearance is an experiment. If the reception of "The Brat" indicates that Klamath Falls folk appreciate the better class of shows, there is no doubt that the opera house will be able to book the majority of the bigger road successes this winter."
