

Society

Delightful affairs of more or less informal nature have marked the last week in local society. Club and lodge entertainments predominated, ushering in a winter season that is expected to see quite a revival of social gatherings after the quiet of the war period.

Mrs. K. G. Cummings was a delightful hostess to the members of the Art Needle Work Club Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Riverside street. The afternoon was spent as usual in doing various kinds of needlework and in the discussion of the various new books that the members are reading. The members present were Mesdames J. F. Goeller, A. W. Piel, R. H. Dunbar, R. E. Wattenburg, S. T. Summers, G. W. White, George L. Hurn, S. E. Martin and the hostess. The guests of the club were Mrs. Thomas Hampton, Mrs. G. A. Krause, J. J. Steiger and Mrs. Low Rogers of Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Fisher entertained at a dinner party last Sunday evening in honor of their sons, Robert and George, who left Monday to resume their studies at the Oakland Polytechnic College.

Miss Gertrude Parker was hostess to the Kedron Club Tuesday evening at her home on Eleventh street. The evening was spent in laying plans for the club for the coming year, after which a social hour was enjoyed and dainty refreshments served by the hostess. Those present were Miss Ivolene McLaughlin, Miss Alice Palmer, Waive Drew, Mary Ball, Helen Guest, Jennie and Anna May Johnson, Faye Hogue, Miss Patton, Mrs. Bert Carl Thomas and the Misses Augusta and Gertrude Parker.

A delightful party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Mills on Alameda street last Friday evening, in honor of their son, DeLose and niece, Miss Greta Madison. The evening was spent in dancing, after which refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were the Misses Geraldine Watt, Winifred McCormick, Florence Bradley, Pearl Blehn, Margaret Johnston, Tena McKimmons, Great Madison; Messrs. Roland Watt, George Carr, Homer Girich, Bruce Jefferies, Rice McCormick, Chester Shriver, Wayne Beach, Norman Mann, Roger Montgomery and Dejos Mills.

A very delightful evening was spent by Alcha chapter, Order of the Easter Star, Monday evening, when Mrs. McMurphy, worthy grand matron, and Mr. McMurphy were guests of the chapter, with Mrs. Umbach of Lakeview, associate grand matron of the order. A delicious banquet was served during the pleasant social evening. While in the city Mr. and Mrs. McMurphy were guests of Mrs. Kipp Van Riper and Miss Maud Baldwin.

Dorothy May Browne is three today and her mother, Mrs. C. B. Browne, is busy with the lovely party she is giving to a number of her baby friends at her home on Ewauna Heights. They are having games and delicious cakes and candies and wonderful gifts were showered upon the little hostess to gladden her heart for a long time. Those who will enjoy Dorothy May's party are Mary Charlene Thomas, Pearl Jean Wilson, Jean Russell Hauger, Alice, Lenore and Eva Furber, Elizabeth Browne, Marion and Margaret Kahman, George Epperson, Jimmie Watkins, and Robert and Donald Hunt.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hoskins will welcome them back to the city when they arrive this evening for a visit of several days. Mrs. Hoskins was Miss Pearl Bolvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bolvin, and until her marriage several months ago spent the greater part of her life in this city, where she has a host of friends. Mr. Hoskins is in the employ of the Standard Oil Co. and they reside in Verlington, Nevada.

SERIOUS MOMENTS IN COMEDY DRAMA

After a record run of one solid year at the Morosco Theatre in New York, and six months in Chicago, three months in Boston, and three months in Philadelphia, Maud Fulton's charming comedy in three acts "THE BRAT" is now in tour, and Manager Houston has succeeded in securing it for an engagement of two nights commencing October 8th at the Opera House.

The company consists of such well known artists as Miss Edna Reese, Miss Gladys Kingsbury, Miss Nanhie Wieniawa, Miss Pauline Hilderbrand, Miss Nell Butler, Frank Cooley, J. Raymond Northcutt, Irvin Dillon and Edwin Smith and the stage is under the able direction of Frank Cooley.

The story of "The Brat" hinges on the evolution and development of a child of the tenements when she is transplanted from her original surroundings to a real home. "The Brat" is for the most part laughter, but now and again come a few serious moments that tend to heighten the effects.

The prices for this engagement will be Children 50 cents, Adults $1.

For the night of Oct. 9th "Bought and Paid For" will be the attraction. Seats are now on sale.
