Many New Shades in Minerva Yarns Just Received

Women who do knitting will find our assortment of yarns at a splendid stage of completeness. The new shades for the fashioning of sweaters offer many suggestions. See our window display.

NEW—Mandarin Smocks

One of the smart and decidedly new articles of feminine apparel that has already become popular in the East. No two of them alike so we hesitate at descriptions. Of fine Oriental Crepe with yarn embroidered designs in bold colors. Some of them have girdles made of yarn. In old rose, pink, green, lavender, yellow, blue and white. Our window display is particularly interesting.

In the October Pictorial Review

Many decidedly attractive styles in Fall Frocks are shown in The Pictorial Review for October. Women who do sewing will find dressmaking a real pleasure when these patterns are used.

Don't miss the big special show at the Liberty tonight. Three big special shows will be given during the evening and any one of them is well worth the admission price charged for the three. Sessue Hayakawa in "His Birthright" will be the first picture shown, and will be followed by a Century Animal Comedy entitled "Lions in the House." The last picture shown will be

"THE LONE STAR RANGER," starring William Farnum, and the picture is being shown this last and extra time because of popular demand, the Liberty being unable to seat the crowds the past two days that this picture has been shown. It
