At the Theatres

Don't miss the big double bill at the Liberty tonight. Priscilla Dean in "The Esquise Thier" will be the first feature and will be followed by an excellent comedy, after which the other feature starring Mary Miles Minter in "The Intrusion of Isabelle" will be shown. This big special bill will be shown at regular prices.

Taylor Holmes, the star of "A Regular Fellow," the photoplay at the Temple Theatre tonight, is one of the most human and best liked comedians on the legitimate stage, having created for himself an enviable reputation as an actor, who can appeal to the sense of humor with refinement.

Vaudeville and legitimate productions, dramatic and musical comedies, have been enhanced by his jovial personality. That Taylor Holmes enjoyed great success under the leadership of such men as David Belasco and Henry Savage, is proof of the allurement of this actor's entertaining ability.

It is to be regretted that screen enthusiasts may not enjoy Mr. Holmes' infectious laugh. But the fact of his appearance in photoplays permits the presentation of his humorous characterization to scores and scores of people, who may never have the opportunity of seeing him on the stage. And the screen reflects to a nicety his manner and quite irresistible personality.

"The Eternal Magdalene," which is presented by Goldwyn pictures as the attraction at the Star Theatre tonight, is the picture version of Robert McLaughlin's famous play—a story that deals with and strikes directly at human sympathies.

Mint Jell

Try Mint Jiffy-Jell with roast lamb or cold meats. It is vastly better than mint sauce. Try Jiffy-Jell desserts with their real fruit flavors in essence form, in vials. Each is so rich in condensed fruit juice that it makes a real fruit dainty. Yet they cost no more than old-style gelatine desserts.
