LEVI BICORY, 94, CROSSES DIVIDE

Levi Bicory, 94 years old, who arrived last May from San Diego, California, to make his home with his daughter, Miss Ethel Bicory at the Lakeview rooming house, died there last night.

He leaves eight children: Mrs. Etta Moore, Mrs. Myrtle Anderson, Mrs. Ida Bunnell and Miss Ethel Bicory of Klamath Falls; Mrs. Emma Russell and Mrs. Mattie Simpson, Kansas City, Mo., and Frank and Charles Bicory of San Diego.

The body is at the Whitlock's undertaking parlors. Arrangements for burial, which will take place here are being made but the date is not fixed.

JUDGE IS HAPPY

Judge N. J. Chapman, justice of the peace, returned last evening on the train, accompanied by his daughter, Helen, who has been spending a few days with her father in southern points. Judge Chapman was met by his two sons, George and Fritz, and the smile on his face shows how happy he is to have his family reunited after a long period of separation.

IMPORTANT CASES SOON TO BE DECIDED

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 11.—Because of the announced intention of the government to push prosecution of anti-trust cases held in abeyance during the war, the session of the supreme court, now under way, is expected to prove one of the most important in the history of the court.

GIRLS ADMITTED TO LEGION POST

SALT LAKE, Oct. 11.—Four yeomanettes who served in the navy throughout the war have been admitted to membership in Salt Lake Post, No. 18, American Legion.

CHIEF'S BONES ARE IN MUSEUM

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 11.—The bones of Chief Black Hawk who played havoc with settlers in Utah in the early 60's are now resting peacefully in the Desert Museum, in the Mormon Temple grounds in this city.

From veterans of the raids made by Black Hawk's bands, it is declared the Black Hawk wars of Utah began in 1864 when a small band of Indians encamped near Gunnison, San Pete county, Utah, suffered an epidemic of smallpox and blamed the white settlers for it.

At the Theatres

Popular George Walsh will be seen at the Liberty Sunday and Monday in that laughable farce, "Help, Help, Police!"

The story of the Magdalen has been immortalized in song, in painting and in sculpture. But the story of the modern Magdalen is more often left untold or else told wrongly in the bandied gossip of the streets or the cold type of court records.

The war has brought to light a thousand stories of penitence, of sacrifice and of the pure love born of suffering, but none is more beautiful than that which David Wark Griffith has immortalized in "The Girl Who Stayed at Home," his latest Aircraft picture, which will be shown at the Star theater tonight.

Norma Talmadge, the beautiful Select star, will be presented by Jos. M. Schenck in her latest Select picture, "The Heart of Wetona," at the Star theater on Sunday.

The story begins when Quannah, chief of a tribe of Comanche Indians, learns that his daughter, Wetona, has been wronged by a white man.

She goes to John Hardin, the agent in charge of the reservation, and the only white man the Indians trust, to ask him to save her lover.

While she is talking to Hardin, Quannah in his search for the man who has wronged his daughter, sees Wetona and Hardin talking so intimately together that he judges Hardin must be his daughter's lover. Hardin, in order to save Wetona, offers to marry her. Tony, a good-for-nothing, is the man Wetona loves. Later her eyes are opened to the kind of a man he really is, and she has a change of heart. Hardin is the lucky man this time.

The next really big picture at the Liberty comes next Wednesday and Thursday, starring Kitty Gordon in "Playthings of Passion." It is a wonderfully strong story and gives Miss Gordon an opportunity to display the talent that has made her one of the greatest stage successes in a decade.

FORESTRY EXPERT SAYS "PLANT TREES"

"This is tree planting time," says Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Forestry Association. He advocates planting of victory oaks, elms and other trees as memorials to soldiers and sailors.
