BILL'S A BIRD FRIENDS CLAIM

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., Oct. 11.—His name is just plain "Bill," and he is only a pelican, but Santa Cruz people who have seen his manifestation of gratitude and devotion say he has traits that many humans lack.

"Bill's" plumage was all gummed up with oil at Seabright beach a few weeks ago, and some boys were clubbing him to death when Albert O'Connor, a garage mechanic, happened along and rescued him. O'Connor took the bird to the garage washed off the oil and gave him something to eat.

Then "Bill" became as steadfast at the garage door as Poe's raven was. Permitting himself only a daily excursion to the San Lorenzo river nearby, for a bath and drink he hastens back and at his post defies customers, dogs and cats, in fact every human or animal who approaches him. It costs O'Connor a considerable amount for fish to fill "Bill's" desires, but O'Connor has to supply the food, for "Bill" pecks, smacks his bill and makes himself otherwise unpleasant when he is hungry.

One day O'Connor perched Bill on an automobile and went for a ride up the coast, the idea being to leave the pelican forever in a new home near some lagoon full of fish. O'Connor found the lagoon about twelve miles from Santa Cruz and left "Bill" at the water's edge. Driving away he believed he had broken off with his friend forever.

But when O'Connor arrived at the garage he found "Bill" there waiting for him.

"After that," said O'Connor, "I can't part with 'Bill.'"

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE.

(Equity No. 1093) In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon For the County of Klamath Mary E. Gates, Plaintiff, vs Claude O. Clopton and Gracie Clopton, his wife, and H. L. Clopton, also known as Hugh L. Clopton, Defendants

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an Execution and Order of Sale, duly issued out of the above entitled Court and cause on the 12th day of September, 1919, under a Decree made and entered of record in the said Court, on the 10th day of September, 1919, in favor of the above named Plaintiff, and against the above named defendants, directing the sale of the premises therein and hereinafter described to satisfy the sum of $545.83, which said sum includes interest on $250.00 since the 10th day of October, 1907 to the date of the commencement of this

YOUR HOME CAN NOW HAVE FURNACE HEAT The Quaker Pipeless Furnace offers clean, even furnace heat to the thousands of homes that heretofore have been forced to rely on inadequate and dirty stoves. Many times the ordinary type of furnace installation is out of the question on account of tearing up the floors and walls for registers and stacks. Again, the basement is too small to admit of the furnace or the home owner has not felt justified in spending the money required for an elaborate pipe installation. Whatever the reason provided, the home owner has, nevertheless, longed for clean, healthful, even furnace heat. The Quaker Pipeless Furnace Meets This Demand The Quaker Pipeless Furnace has no pipes, no bulky cold air returns. Your floors and walls are not torn up, no cellar is too small. The installation is extremely simple. Anybody can install the Quaker Pipeless Furnace. An abundance of clean, pure, warm air, sent to every room. Simpler than a stove to operate, cleaner, more saving of fuel, and much more healthful. Sends heat to every room in the house. Ventilates as well as heats. Changes and purifies the air in every room.
