YANKEE GIRL TEACHES BULLY

OMSK, July 17, via Vladivostok, Aug. 10. (Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—A certain Russian bully learned something about American women that will lurk in his memory for some time through an encounter a few days ago with Miss Annie Laurie Williams in the freight yards at Omsk. Miss Williams' name will be familiar to many New Yorkers as a welfare worker. She is now with the American Red Cross and was one of those twelve women chosen to remain behind when the others were hustled out of Omsk by the American Ambassador to Japan, Roland S. Morris, to escape a possible Bolshevik invasion.

The Russian was attempting to climb aboard a car in a refugee train in which were several girls. The girls were trying to shut the car door against him when Miss Williams appeared and grappled with the intruder. She managed to land two blows on his jaw and then they rolled together down the embankment. As they arose she gave him another. Two Czech soldiers then came to her aid and, but for Miss Williams' intercession, would have finished the bully who was eventually allowed to retreat and ponder on the strange ways of American women.

CHECK THAT COLD RIGHT AWAY

Dr. King's New Discovery has relieved colds and coughs for fifty years

It was an unusually high quality cold, cough, gripe, and croup remedy when introduced half a century ago. Not once in all the years since then has the quality been allowed to deteriorate. Its effectiveness in combating colds and coughs has been proved thousands of times in thousands of families. Taken by grownups and given to the little ones for the safe, sure treatment of colds and gripe, coughs and croup, it leaves absolutely no disagreeable after-effects. Get a bottle at your druggist's today. 60c. and $1.20.

GERMAN CRIME IS ON INCREASE

BERLIN, Sept. 10. (Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Germany has increasingly taken to crime since the revolution, and the once orderly empire, where pickpockets were almost unknown and holdups and robberies created a sensation, is undergoing an epidemic of crime. Probably no system has proved more effective than, in these days of uncertainty and change, playing the official or impersonating a soldier or policeman.

Recently two clever criminals who discovered that a certain man had concealed in his home 115 thousand mark notes of the old type and liable to confiscation had frightened him into surrendering the money on the promise of escaping prosecution.

A real official who had posed out the plot, entered just in time to see the transfer of the money and really did confiscate it besides arresting the three men.

More successful was another false scheme. Here a group succeeded in inducing a man who had hoarded 50 thousand mark bills to sell them at a handsome profit. The deal was in progress when fellow conspirator, posing as officials, appeared, confiscated the money and robbed the owner.

An airplane was used to capture criminals when the authorities got wind recently of an attempt to carry 20,000,000 marks on an express train to Munich whence they were to be smuggled across the Swiss border.

Robberies at railroad stations from freight cars have been increasing to a great extent. Countless cases of false papers for the delivery of goods have been discovered, usually after it was too late.

The discovery of two freight car loads of bacon lying on a siding at a suburban station led to the discovery of a huge swindle originating in Holland, conducted from the Rhineland, and making use of false bills of lading. Many railroad men were involved in a small way for their share in handling the faked bills of lading.

The constant swindling extends to every imaginable kind of food and raw material. A young man appeared recently at a storehouse in central Berlin and asked to have some cases stored. When the warehouse watchman saw the cases he was suspicious because they came from the imperial textile plant at Zwickenau. So he reported the presence of the cases, investigation showed 2,000 yards of textile worth 120,000 marks and the young man was captured by a ruse. He had procured the cloth on a forged order bearing the signature of the textile authorities.
