GRAND JURY IN

REGULAR SESSION

The Klamath county grand jury is in session today. Practically all the business to come before the body, it is believed, is in the nature of criminal matters which have been referred to it by the courts. There are six criminal cases in which indictments are sought.

AT THE THEATERS

A modern drama which contradicts all familiar formulas is "The Woman on the Index," first of the Goldwyn pictures in which brilliant Pauline Frederick appears. When Miss Frederick as the heroine, happily married to a diplomat is introduced to a friend of her husband she imagines that all is lost. This man she recognizes as a former detective. Now he is chief of the Secret Service. At once she knows he will reveal to her husband the fact that she is "the woman on the index" that her name appears in the police records. But he does not. He is truly her friend. Will be seen at the Star Theatre tonight.

"The Mayor of Filbert," now running at the Temple Theatre, is without doubt one of the most powerful photoplays of the year. The story deals largely with that most vital topic—prohibition—but there is interwoven an appealing love theme, which serves to make the production as a whole an unusually well-balanced vehicle. Jack Richardson who plays the stellar role, gives a splendid interpretation of a difficult dual role. And it is hard to say whether he is more interesting as the highest official of a big city or a delinquent. Certainly he is confronted with one of the biggest problems that ever beset a man.

DIVORCE GROWING IN GREAT BRITAIN

LONDON, Oct. 16.—Divorce is increasing throughout the United Kingdom at an alarming rate, according to a white paper. The total for 1898 was 650. For 1917 it was 1,705, with the greatest increase recorded in the years between 1914-17. Another development which the government views with alarm is the number of actions brought by husbands. Where once the petitioner was usually a woman, the past few years have so changed the situation that in 1917 the number of husbands seeking separations was 1,067 as compared with 638 wives.
