

Personal Mention

 Paul V. Maris, leader of the county agricultural agents of the state, is in the city from Corvallis. He comes for the purpose of looking over the work that is being done by County Agent Thomas. He will attend the farm bureau meeting which is to be held at Keno this evening.

COLLECTION SUIT FILED

Suit has been filed in the circuit court by the Chiloquin Mercantile company against Henry Shadley and wife to collect $182, alleged to be due for merchandise. Manning & Cannon are attorneys for the plaintiff.

FAIR WARNING

During the past few years, material of all kinds, as well as labor have practically doubled in price, and yet a good many Klamath folks are carrying the same amount of insurance on buildings, furniture, stocks, etc. A fire would mean a very serious loss. Wouldn't it be wise to check up and get some additional protection. Get a STANDARD policy from Chilcote & Smith, 633 Main St., Phone 66 and we will do the rest. 17-3t

Giving People a Little More Than They Expect Is Good Business

The cost of production and raw materials is constantly increasing. Never before were foresight and live merchandising methods so potent a factor in the lives of the buying public. Foreseeing present conditions, I have strained every effort to keep down the cost of wearing apparel—and keep up the quality and style values at the same time. Believing that I have solved the above problem, your inspection is earnestly solicited. Comparison of our qualities and price is urged that you may be assured without doubt that our styles are correct, quality unsurpassed and prices reasonable.

GARICH'S GROCERY NEWS

VOLUME I. KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1919 NUMBER 27

EDITORIAL

Don't say we are not trying to hold down the high cost of living when you cast your eyes upon our windows every Saturday. Please note the prices we are giving you this week. We ask you to compare them with what you have been paying for the same goods. It is because we believe that the people of Klamath Falls appreciate the efforts of any merchant who would try and help them bridge over this period of high prices and difficulty in making both ends meet by giving him their patronage that we have tried so hard to find and offer to you first class merchandise at reduced prices. It has been no easy matter to pick up bargains. We find it as hard to buy merchandise below the market price as you do, and whenever we can get hold of a bargain we pass it on to you in instead of pocketing the extra profit ourselves.

In all of our efforts we keep always in mind the quality of the merchandise we are offering you. When a dealer says he has a bargain to offer, the first thing we find out is the quality of the goods he has to offer, and if it is Garich Standard we buy. If it is not, then we turn down his offer. That is why it pays you to buy at our grocery and why it pays me to offer you only the highest quality of merchandise, for I am in business in Klamath Falls and I am here to stay.
