The Women's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church met Thursday afternoon at the home of the pastor and wife, the Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Lawrence, for a missionary tea.

About twenty-four members and friends were present. A missionary study hour followed the serving of refreshments.

Last Saturday Alexis Lyle celebrated her ninth birthday with a very pretty party at which Beatrice Bixby of San Francisco was guest of honor. The dining room and table were decorated in pink and the color scheme was carried out in the refreshments as well with pink ices and pink lemonade enough to gladden a gathering of twice as many little people as were assembled to wish Mrs. Alexis many happy returns. Mrs. B. R. Dow assisted Mrs. Lyle in entertaining the young people who were crowned with pretty pink caps upon their arrival laden with beautiful gifts for the little hostess.

Those present were Elizabeth Ramsby, Zepha and Jean Rogers, Beatrice and Katherine Walton, Gerda Larson, Corrine Plath, Elizabeth Graham, Beatrice Bixby, Mercedes Boyd, and Bennett Ludden.

BOLSHEVIKI LAUGH AT DEATH AGONIES

STOCKHOLM, Oct. 18.—In a lecture here Professor Guido Schneider of Riga, stated that a total of 23,632 men, women and children, have been shot by the Bolsheviki.

In many cases, he said, the executioners were intoxicated and unable to aim straight. Time and again their victims were only wounded, and their agony called forth laughter from their murderers.

Young girls, elegantly dressed, volunteered to act as executioners, the lecturer said.

MIDLAND NOTES

Several of the Midland people attended the basket social at the Spring Lake school house last week. J. I. Hooper and family spent Sunday afternoon at the oil well.

James Dixon was in the Midland section Sunday looking after stock.

Mrs. Hilbert Sargent is here visiting her husband, who is clearing land on the Miller Island for their future home.

Miss Selma McReynolds spent last Saturday in Klamath Falls.

FRENCH ELECTIONS ARE APPROACHING

LYONS, France, Oct. 18.—The election of a successor to President Poincaré is now only four months distant, yet parliamentary elections to choose members of the senate and chamber of deputies must first be held as these in joint session at Versailles in January must elect the tenth president of the republic.

Results of the coming election are regarded as more obscure than any since the fall of the empire. This is all the more true because of the death of one-half million voters in the war, the coming of age of an equal number of new voters, and the anticipated modifications of the party lines by new issues resulting from the war and reconstruction.

Six hundred deputies and three hundred senators are to be chosen. No aspirant for any of these seats has yet officially declared his candidacy. There will be no primaries or local conventions as in America, but the candidates will be selected by party committees with various combinations of different parties whose principles are not too widely separated.

The Socialists are resolved not to combine with any other party but the Radicals have decided to form union tickets in some districts with other purely republican organizations.

The wide difference between presidential elections in France and the United States is illustrated in the fact that here the president is chosen by parliament, while in America the chief executive is elected by the vote of the people for electors. Contrary to what opinions abroad might expect from the French, elections here are peaceful compared to those of America.

For ages the fourth finger of the left hand has been chosen for the bride's wedding ring, but few know how the custom originated. The fact is that the Romans, who were the first to use the wedding ring, selected the finger because they believed that a nerve went from it direct to the heart.

MAINTENANCE

If you buy an automobile, lock it up in your garage, and never use it, there will be no upkeep or "maintenance" charge for operating it.

But the very minute you start to drive the machine about, right there the parts begin to wear and every week, or hour, or minute, brings it nearer to the fixing shop; and when the year has passed you will have spent a sum of money, great or small, but in excess of the purchase price to maintain the car and keep it in running condition.

Just so it is with a Public Utility, for no sooner has the installation of its plant been completed, and service commences, then keeping it in proper shape at all times becomes necessary, and the cost of doing so is called "Maintenance."

However, despite all this renewal of parts, etcetera, there is a general wearing and weakening of the whole machine, a lost price, a depreciation. There is generally an estimated fall in value, based upon actual experience, which will necessitate a new substitution within a given time.

pasty, muddy complexions we should see crowds of happy, healthy, rosy-cheeked people everywhere. The reason is that the human system does not rid itself each day of all the waste which it accumulates under our present mode of living. For every ounce of food and drink taken into the system nearly an ounce of waste material must be carried out, else it ferments and forms ptomaine-like poisons which are absorbed into the blood. Just as necessary as it is to clean the ashes from the furnace each day before the fire will burn bright and hot, so we must each morning clear the inside organs of the previous day's accumulation of indigestible waste and body toxins. Men and women, whether sick or well, are advised to drink each morning, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, as a harmless means of washing out of the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels the indigestible material, waste, sour bile and toxins; thus cleaning, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. Millions of people who had their turn at constipation, bilious attacks, acid stomach, nervous days and sleepless nights have become real cranks about the morning inside bath. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will not cost much at the drug store, but is sufficient to demonstrate to any one its cleansing, sweetening and freshening effect upon the system.—Ad

Jump from Bed in Morning and Drink Hot Water

Tells why everyone should drink hot water each morning before breakfast.

Why is man and woman, half the time, feeling nervous, despondent, worried; some days headachy, dull and unstrung; some days really incapacitated by illness.

If we would all practice inside-bathing, what a gratifying change would take place. Instead of thousands of half-sick, anaemic-looking souls with
