LUMBER MEN ARE LOOKING FOR WESTERN TIMBER

"The high cost of living has not struck this city yet," was the statement made today by George A. Stephenson, who returned last evening from a thirty-day business visit to Chicago, Milwaukee and Minneapolis. "Notwithstanding the high prices, which are higher by 25 per cent than they are in this city, the people of the Middle West are enjoying great prosperity. Everything is going ahead at high speed and everyone seems to have plenty of money. The volume of travel on every railroad is astounding, and from what I gathered there is going to be the greatest business in the history of the nation."

What interested Mr. Stephenson even more than the high prices was the fact that they are cutting up 62 logs back there to get a thousand feet of lumber. Out here the average is four and a half to five. "Any thought of leaving Klamath Falls has vanished. I am back to stay and become a fixture here. Great things are in store for Klamath Falls, and the predictions of a great city here are not idle talk. The lumber men of the Middle West know more about this county than the oldest of the old residents, and the eyes of the biggest of them are turned this way."

COURT LEVIES $50 FINE AN SHANAHAN

Ben Shanahan paid a fine of $50 in Police Judge Leavitt's court yesterday for driving an automobile, while intoxicated, at the rate of 40 miles an hour. Both intoxication and the excessive speed are offenses against the law.

SUES TO COLLECT $82.

Joe Provost, through his attorney, Bert C. Thomas, yesterday filed suit in the circuit court against Jas. Sumpter, to collect $82.30 alleged to be due for stock feed and cash loaned.

"I'LL COME AND SEE YOU"

I can only remain here on this trip until Saturday night. But I will be back in two weeks. I am so busy installing the weather strips in the new homes for which I hold contracts that I find it impossible to visit others and explain to them the merits of the strip. But if you are interested, if you want to live in comfort and save fuel this winter, leave word at The Herald office and I will come around and see you before I leave, and I know you will place your order. But whether you buy or not, let me know if you are interested and I'll come and see you.
T. L. COLLIER.

LOOK AT YOUR DATE
Subscribers receiving their paper through the mails are requested to look at the date following their name. It indicates the date upon which the paper is stopped if the subscription is not renewed. The Herald will appreciate it if these renewals are sent in far enough in advance to avoid the necessity of stopping the paper, as it entails a great deal of clerical work to place a name back upon the mailing list again. No receipt is sent when a renewal is received—the change in the date upon the wrapper indicating that the money has been received and proper credit given.

GLACIER LOCATED FOR GOLD MINE

JUNEAU, Alaska, Sept. 2.—(By Mail).—Diverting the entire stream of a glacier by means of a tunnel and locating the glacier as a gold placer claim, is the latest word in Alaska gold mining.

Mendenhall glacier thus has sprung into fame. The locator is C. H. Boyles.

Recently, Boyles got his idea for the novel venture in considering the possibilities of a pool 40 feet deep in the solid rock in the bed of the river and about 100 feet from the point where the river comes out of the face of the glacier, eight feet of the pool is water and 32 feet soft sand. Pannings have shown considerable gold and black sand in the vicinity. Hence Boyles took as his theory that much of the gold washed out of the entire valley above the pool had found lodgment in the 32 feet of sand of the pool.

GIVES BOND TO APPEAR FOR HIS SECOND TRIAL

Ed. Smith, tried recently in the U. S. district court at Medford on a charge of selling liquor to Indians, gave a new bond for appearance at a second trial in Portland, December 7, before Bert C. Thomas, U. S. commissioner, yesterday. The Medford jury disagreed and Judge Wolverton reduced Smith's bond from $1,000 to $500 and held him for second trial. He was allowed ten days' liberty on his own recognizance to come here and secure new bondsmen.

STATUE UNHARMED AMID RUINS

Did supernatural aid really come to the armies of France? In the little village of St. Pierre Aigle, where the American Committee for Devastated France is working, a beautiful statue of the Holy Virgin stands unharmed amid great piles of stones under the shell marred window of the ruined cathedral.

INSULT WITHOUT WORDS

"I understand the returned soldier Harold met insulted him. What did the soldier say to him?"

"Nothing. He merely put on his gas mask when Harold began to tell of the wonderful improvements he had made in his boss' methods."—Baltimore American.

NOTICE

After October 1 all classified advertising must be paid for in advance. The cost of this advertising is only five cents a line, counting five words to the line. This rate makes it impossible for The Herald to handle it as other than a cash basis, as the cost of bookkeeping is greater than the value of the advertisement. Anyone can compute the cost by counting five words to the line and remitting five cents for each line for each insertion. The necessity for payment in advance precludes the possibility of taking this advertising over the phone, and The Herald will appreciate it if requests to do so will not be made.

Low Stock

—When we tell you in our advertising of the great scarcity of musical instruments we are not doing it so much to sell our goods as to give persons who read this ad and act upon it first chance to select from our present stock.

—Our store stock looks fairly complete, but it's our warehouse, which is fifty to sixty instruments short, that looks sick.

—If you are considering the purchase of a Standard Instrument before Christmas, better play safe and look them over now.
