

Personal Mention

Mrs. C. J. Dunn of Algoma is in the county seat purchasing winter supplies.

Ivan Kesterman, lumber man of the Worden section, is a county seat visitor today.

F. R. Hamilton and family have removed from Port Klamath to this city to make their home during the winter months.

Among the tourists registered here are Mrs. M. D. Porter of New York City, H. McManus of San Francisco and J. C. Boay of Portland, Oregon.

J. C. Harris, who operates the restaurant at Jenny Creek, is at the county seat purchasing supplies and attending to other important matters of business.

A. Zwalt and Mrs. Zwalt left this morning on the train for their home in Oakland, California. Mr. Zwalt has been in Klamath for about two weeks buying cattle.

Harry Allen, president of the Oregon Elks, who has been here for several days in the interest of patriotic movements, left this morning on the train for Portland.

Mrs. Q. Lemmon, accompanied by Mrs. J. C. Mitchell, left this morning for Hamilton City, California, where she will spend a couple of weeks visiting at the home of Mrs. Mitchell.

Berrett Griffith of Merrill left this morning for Ashland, where he will spend the winter. Mr. Griffith reports that his father, Judge Griffith, who removed there some time ago, is greatly improved in health since his residence in Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Egan are in town on matters of business. Mr. Egan is superintendent of the Algoma Lumber company. E. J. Johnson, president of the company, is also here on matters in connection with the company's interests.

Miss Bernardine Hannon and little Miss Helen Fisher of South Bend, Washington, who have been spending the past two weeks visiting at the home of Miss Hannon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Hannon, left this morning for their home in South Bend, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Freuer are in town from their ranch at Malin.

Mrs. Frank Bailey of Odessa left this morning for Californian points to spend the winter.

Mrs. De Armond of Swan Lake left today for Grants Pass and Medford where she will visit with friends and relatives for the winter.

Mrs. E. L. Elliott came up from the Elliott homestead at Malin today to spend the week and visit with the children who are here attending school.

JAPS TO RULE HAWAII IN FOURTEEN YEARS

Within fourteen years Hawaiian born Japanese will hold the political control of Hawaii, according to the Rev. Umataaro Okumura, a prominent Japanese clergyman, speaking at a church convention in Honolulu.

To prepare for the inevitable, declared the Rev. Mr. Okumura, it is essential that greater efforts be made to Americanize the younger Japanese who are growing into the franchise.

Briscoe car $475 at Howie's. Just giving it away. 24-2t

"PAID IN ADVANCE"

A Companion Picture to 'The Spoilers,' at the Star Sunday

"Paid in Advance," starring Dorothy Phillips and an all-star cast, in a gripping picture of the frozen north, written by the famous author, James Oliver Curwood, and staged regardless of expense, amid marvelous mountain scenery. The dramatic story of a girl who was snowed in at a lawless mining camp and had to make a great decision. A story even better than "The Spoilers." Don't miss it. At the Star Theatre Sunday and Monday.

Briscoe car $475 at Howie's. Just giving it away. 24-2t

Society

Mrs. E. T. Givan, a recent bride, who was Jo Driscoll was the honor guest Thursday night when her sisters the Misses Agnes and Letha Driscoll and Miss Blanche Warren entertained for her at a delightful dinner party in the banquet room of the Deer Head Grill. Pink La France roses and tulle were used in decoration with kewpie brides as favors and during the evening the guests were entertained by little Miss Joan Thompson an accomplished dancer as well as music by the guests and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Givan will make their home in Bly where Mr. Givan is engaged in stock raising.

Mrs. Givan is a teacher in the local High School. She formerly attended the University of Oregon and was a member of the Delta Delta Delta Sorority and popular in school circles.

Those invited besides the honor guest were: Mrs. Grace Driscoll, Mrs. Frank Frankford, Mrs. J. N. Givan, Mrs. Edmund Gower Mrs. A. J. Voye, Mrs. Roderick Smith, Mrs. Louis Hoagland, Misses Agnes Lee, Alice McCourt, Margaret Colahan, Mildred Colahan, Geraldine Watt, Claudia Langell, Inez Thompson, Bess Kilgore, Inez Kilgore, Hazel Givan, Mary Deggendorfer, Betty Gaddis, Jo Low, Meta Chastain, Vera Thompson, Joan Thompson, Karl Montgomery, Ina Gould, Ina Graham, Claudia Spink.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. J. E. Bratton entertained at luncheon at her home on High street in honor of one of her girlhood friends, Mrs. Georgia Martin and Mrs. Martin's daughter, Mrs. Wesley Gibson, a recent bride. The house was artistically decorated in autumn colors and presented a pleasing appearance.

The guests were delightfully entertained by several piano solos rendered by Miss Elizabeth Ramsby who is giving great promise as a musician of more than ordinary ability.

Mrs. Bratton's guests besides the guests of honor were: Mesdames R. A. Emmitt, F. H. Mills, Carey Ramsby, Howard Van Valkenburg, George Biehn, George Humphrey, Sam Summers, Paul Johnson, John Johnson, George Hurn, Austin Hayden, C. E. Martin, G. A. Massey, Lyle Mills, Frank Nelson, W. T. Shive, George T. Walton, A. M. Worden, Henry Newham, Ivy North and the Misses Maude Baldwin, Viola Campbell, Helen Caldwell and Elizabeth Ramsby.

To raise money for a pipe organ for the new Presbyterian church, some of the girls of the church are planning a "stunt" for November at the Moose Hall. They call it an

Saving Promotes Good Citizenship

We Pay 4 Per Cent on Time Deposits

Klamath State Bank "THE DAYLIGHT BANK" Corner Sixth and Main

"Evening of Dreams," but say that it won't be as sleepy as that sounds. There will be no admission charged as they plan to extract the money as painlessly as possible after the crowd is there. It won't be a pipe dream, but a pipe organ dream.

Miss Esther Calkins entertained informally at cards Wednesday evening in honor of Miss Velma Meredith who will leave soon for Portland.

St. Paul's guild met at the home of Mrs. Chas. J. Martin Thursday afternoon. A short business session was held after which the remainder of the afternoon was spent in needlework and music.

The members present were: Mesdames J. H. Garrett, Lou's Hoagland, C. B. Cozad, A. W. Reel, Thos. Hampton, B. C. Withrow, C. M. Ramsby, O. D. Burke, J. D. Morgan, J. C. Brockenbrough, L. Manning, L. Terwilliger, H. Carter, J. Foster, P. V. Burke, D. B. Kuykendall, C. Frankford, S. E. Martin, F. A. Patrick, A. Worsley, I. Morrison, Miss Verda Cozad, Mrs. C. J. Martin.

The visitors were: Mrs. James McClure, Mrs. J. H. Gallagher, Mrs. Fred Murphv, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Rose Soule Bratton, Mrs. John Moore, Mrs. H. Hosley, Mrs. E. L. Hosley.

Miss Fannie Virgil entertained on Tuesday evening with a small needlework party. The guests were Misses Gertrude Parker, Jennie Johnston, Faye Hogue, Alice Palmer, Eunice Vandenburg, Patton and Mrs. E. Virgil. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Faye Hogue entertained Friday evening the following guests being invited: Lena Guest, Jennie Johnston, Maude Carelton, Eunice Vandenburg, Ruth Avery, Fannie Virgil and Mrs. Willard Johnson. The evening was spent with needlework.

One of the social events of the coming week and one that is looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure is the social evening to be given Tuesday evening by the officers of Aloha Chapter O. E. S. to their Past Officers. This is a yearly event in the Lodge and one that is greatly enjoyed by both officers and members.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Smith entertained at a delightful little dinner party Wednesday evening when they had as their guests the Misses Ruth Avery and Aileen Smith and Messrs Wilson and Ranshaw.

Mrs. George L. Humphrey was hostess to the Happy Hour Club this week at her home on Eighth Street. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing and conversation, after which refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Geo. Biehn, John Hamilton, S. T. Summers, W. Templer, Jennie Hurn, Addie Walker, R. A. Emmitt, Paul Johnson, Harry Richardson, O. M. Hector, Addie Zwaldt, Joe Lane, Newham, Steinmetz and Humphrey.

Miss Bessie Tull and Emmitt North took their friends on a hiking party Sunday to the McCormack ranch where a picnic dinner was served. Those who enjoyed the pleasant trip were: Pearl Biehn, Stella Turner, Frances Humphrey, Eva Jenkins, Frieda Madison, Bessie Tull, George Carr, Homer Garlich, Clifford Hogue, Roger Montgomery, Delos Mills, Freddie Biehn, Harold Bateman, Chester Schreiber and Emmitt North. Mrs. North and Mrs. Tull chaperoned the young people.

There were a few small social affairs given during the week by the Mesdames Earl Whitlock, H. N. Moe, J. C. Brockenbrough, Fred Shallock and Mrs. H. D. Mortensen.

A jolly crowd of picnickers tramped to the headgates on the west side Wednesday evening where a huge bon fire was built and dinner served. After the dinner the bon fire afforded a good opportunity to roast chestnuts and spin yarns. Those present were the Misses Faye Hogue, Parker, Jennie and Anna May Johnson.

Esther McAndrews, Waive Drew, Mary Deggendorfer, Inez Graham, and Dr. Fred Westerfeld, Frank Griffith, Frank Sloan and Mr. Clemens.

A reception was given at the Methodist Church last evening to Rev. S. J. Chaney, who was sent by the Methodist Conference to Klamath Falls. Mr. Chaney comes from Idaho where he has been very successful in his ministry. He is exceptionally well qualified to fill his post at Klamath Falls, by reason of his education, training, experience and personal adaptability to new environments.

A large crowd was in attendance at the church and an excellent program was rendered, including musical selections by Catherine and Beatrice Walton, Mrs. Frye, Mrs. Melba, Tom Merideth and his sister Miss Merideth and A. Roberts. A duet by Mrs. Will Halloway and Mrs. R. I. Merritt, and an organ solo by Frank Robinson. Address of welcome was given by Edmund M. Chilcote, and Lawrence Phelps spoke on the work of the Epworth League. There were talks also by Mr. Merritt and Rev. Chaney.

A social hour and reception followed the program, together with games and light refreshments.

The Mezzanine Room, on the second floor of The Deer Head Grill, is now open for your inspection. We solicit your patronage for teas, banquets or special parties. Our music is unexcelled, and with an excellent floor for dancing, it will be possible to give parties under conditions most favorable for the convenience of the hostess and the pleasure and comfort of the guests. Phone your orders to 444, or see us personally. We will convince you of our ability to give you the best of service and satisfaction.

The first floor of The Grill is devoted to counter and tables, where you may enjoy our quick service and good food at any time.

Our prices are right.

THE DEER HEAD GRILL AND CONFECTIONERY

619 and 621 Main Street
Fred W. McManus, Prop.

I'm for AMERICA through and through;
I'm for the old RED, WHITE and BLUE—
Today, tomorrow and the next day, too,
I'm an AMERICAN; what are you?

Subscribe Now to the ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL FUND

Take your place among men and women who are 100 per cent American. The old United States is the BEST GOVERNMENT of all time.

Keep It American

Come up now with your patriotic offering. Pay to the solicitors, or to the

- FIRST NATIONAL BANK
- FIRST STATE & SAVINGS BANK
- KLAMATH STATE BANK, or
- CHARLES WOOD EBERLEIN, County Chairman.