CAL. HEALTH BOARD
DISCOVERS DANGER

Now comes the California State Board of Health with a health hint that will cause gloom among lovesick youths and maidens if the suggestion is heeded. The "hint" places hugging and kissing in the same class with the common towel and drinking cup, which have long been considered health menaces.

Here's the board's latest health bulletin:

When one member of a family contracts a common cold other members generally contract colds in due season. Affectionate greetings, the kissing and embraces, even handshaking, between infected and un-infected members have considerable to do with transmission of colds, as well as the promiscuous sneezings and careless nose blowings. Droplets and spray infections also play their part. These methods of transmission are important and probably constitute the chief factors in the spread of common colds.

On the other hand, the use of the common towel and drinking cup, the careless washing of dishes, especially cup, forks and spoons, as well as careless disposal of soiled handkerchiefs, may under some conditions be of even greater importance. In the spread of common colds, at any rate, no household can afford to neglect the practice of common approved methods of sanitation. Their adoption will undoubtedly have considerable to do with the prevention of the spread of communicable diseases other than common colds. No family should tolerate the common towel or the common drinking cup, and as for the efficient washing of dishes—that is the pride of every housewife.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT
In the last half century this country made greater advances in all channels of human endeavor than ever were made by any country in any half century of all time. The credit is due to the men and women who kept their shoulders to the wheels of progress. And not the least of these was Theodore Roosevelt, soldier, legislator, author, hunter, ranchman, student, president.
On the twenty-seventh of October it will be sixty-one years that Theodore Roosevelt came to add his strenuous life to the up-building of civilization, democracy and justice in America. On this anniversary of his birth the people of Roosevelt's native land will lay the foundation of the Roosevelt memorial, and it will be a memorial worthy of a Roosevelt, for this foundation will be laid in the hearts of the men and women to whom Theodore Roosevelt was one of the greatest of Americans.
The people of the United States will long remember and honor the Roosevelt, who a year ago laid down the burdens of mortal life.

THE THREE CROSSES

The iron cross is black as death and hard as human hate; The wooden cross is white and still and whispers us, "Too Late," But the Red Cross sings of life and love and hearts regenerate.

The iron cross is a boastful cross and marks the war-mad slave; The wooden cross is a dumb, dead cross and marks a shallow grave, But the Red Cross reaches out its arms to solace and to save.

The iron cross is a Kaiser's cross and narrow is its clan;
The wooden cross is a soldier's cross and mourns its partisan, But the Red Cross is the Cross of One who served his fellowman.

THANK YOU

I can hardly find words to express my appreciation of the splendid patronage of the people of Klamath County at my Thirteenth Yom Kippur Sale. The tremendous volume of business so far exceeded my expectation, that I was simply overwhelmed.
Saturday night was the climax of a week of surprises to me and I feel that I owe an apology to those who had to wait to be served or any who had to leave before getting everything they needed.
But any who did not get the benefit of the efficient service we are so proud of, can understand the difficulty that confronted us in caring for such an unprecedented crowd. It is our only excuse. The attendance was, however, a source of great satisfaction to me, for it showed that the people of the city and county have confidence in the integrity of my Yom Kippur Sales, that they recognize the quality of the merchandise I carry and appreciate the effort I make to give them real values at bargain prices. Next year I am going to try and make my Fourteenth Yom Kippur Sale still greater.
K. SUGARMAN.

"I ain't mad at nobody"

Dr. Livingston Farrand, the greatest authority on public health in America, served in France as the head of the fight against tuberculosis. He now succeeds Henry P. Davison as head of the American Red Cross. Dr. Far-rand recently visited Seattle, Spokane and Portland and conferred with representatives of Red Cross Chapters of Alaska, Idaho, Oregon and Washington. "The Red Cross faces problems in the post-war period more serious, if possible, than the problems of the war itself. Not a great amount of money, but the membership and heartily co-operation of every American citizen is what is needed to help the Red Cross to solve these problems, which threaten our national vitality, and which, unless solved, will rob us of the fruits of victory," said Dr. Far-rand.

"The Red Cross is the Gospel in boots."
