SPEND MONEY TO BEAT TAXES

BERLIN, Oct. 8. (By The Associated Press.)—A brand new way has been found to beat the new Erzberger taxes, and a German nobleman, who served throughout the war as a cavalry captain, is the one who has made the discovery. It is very simple—you simply spend all your money before the taxes fall due.

The Baron of ancient family, whom the correspondent has known for years, telling of his plan, seemed not to care who heard him, for he spoke in a loud voice. He was immaculately clad in a new suit that probably cost 2,000 marks, and wore a new pair of shoes that Berlin's most famous boot maker would make for 500 marks.

"That suit is just about the finest thing that can be bought or made in Germany," said the Baron. "And what is more, I have several of them. All brandy-spandy new. I have suits to keep me for the next five years.

"See those shoes? Well, I had them made and nine more pairs. I never had so many shoes in my life, but I've got enough now to last some time. And everything else in accordance. New shirts, socks, underwear, the best money can buy. I haven't spared a mark, because I am going to get rid of all I possess before the first of January, when I have to make my tax declaration."

BIG TIME SLATED AT MOOSE HALL TOMORROW NIGHT

"The sheeted dead did squeak and gibber in the streets of Rome." Merely a quotation—or perhaps a misquotation—called to mind by the fact that tomorrow night is the big night of the sheet and pillow case Halloween dance at Moose hall. Not that the quotation is at all apropos—for there will be no dead ones at the Moose hall party. Only the liveliest live wires in town—from Bobby Ryan downward—will be eligible to take part in the proceedings. The only qualification needed in order to gain admission is a desire to participate in a real old fashioned good time. The makings of the good time are all provided—a good floor, good music and tiptop management. The whole Halloween tribe of ghosts, goblins and fairies have cancelled all lesser engagements in order to attend. Decorations will till you see 'em. You can take part in the prize waltz unless attired in sheet and pillow case. Speaking of fairies—the Moose hall long on fairies. The fairest of all fairies of Klamath Falls is noted as the abode of the fairest of all fairies of the world will be there to trip the light fantastic. Sure, 'twill be a great occasion, tomorrow night at Moose hall.

Better Let Us Patch 'Em Up

This is the time to look over your tires with the idea of making them last through the winter. Of course, if you must have new tires, Diamonds are the only ones to buy at this time of the year—or at any other time, so far as that goes—but the idea we wish to convey is that we can make the old ones last through the bad weather, and save you money on your tire bill by repairing the worn ones. Bring them in, and if they are worth repairing we will tell you what it will cost—if they are not worth repairing, we will tell you that, just as readily. We can't make a new tire out of one that is worn out, but we can take a damaged tire and repair it so you will get many more miles out of it before it goes to the junk pile.
