

WILL PLACE PROPS UNDER GALVESTON

GALVESTON, Texas, Oct. 20.—Commercial interests of Galveston and city and county officials are launching an energetic state-wide campaign in support of a constitutional amendment to be voted on November 4 under which $5,000,000 public improvement bonds would be issued to raise the grade level of the city. The plan is to lift the buildings off their foundations and hydraulically pump mud and sand from the Gulf of Mexico under them until the entire business section of the city would be established three to five feet above its present level.

MINERS ENTOMBED; BELIEVED DEAD

STUEBENSVILLE, Ohio, Oct. 20.—After battling their way to within 150 feet of where 20 miners have been imprisoned since yesterday by a cave-in of the Amsterdam mine, rescuers were ordered out of the mine by mine inspectors and mine owners, when fire broke out behind them, causing an explosion to be feared. Hope is abandoned that any of the entombed miners are alive.

CUFF LINKS

A good-looking shirt deserves a good-looking pair of cuff links. And not every good-looking pair of cuff links looks good in each good-looking shirt. That's why a man needs several pairs of cuff buttons. Maybe you never thought of it, but cuff links show up a man's taste. We have a stylish line of them that you ought to look over. In gold, silver and enamel we show the very newest patterns, and a wide variety in each.

At the Theatres

Most powerful of all Geraldine Farrar's screen achievements is her newest Goldwyn production, "The Stronger Vow," a thrilling, modern drama, laid in the picturesque Pyrenees and in the haunts of the Apaches in Paris. Never before have the remarkable talents of the international celebrity been given such wide scope, nor have her cinema admirers ever been enthralled and thrilled as Goldwyn confidently predicts they will be by her latest offering a vehicle replete with situations that demand test after test of Geraldine Farrar's histrionic powers. As in her previous Goldwyn successes, the diva has a supporting cast nothing short of brilliant, Milton Sills, Tom Santschi, and Hassard Short—names standing for extreme screen accomplishment—eclipsing all previous portrayals in support of the star of stars Miss Farrar's demands that her roles be exacting and pitched in a high dramatic key are thoroughly satisfied in "The Stronger Vow," with its interest-compelling story of romance, intrigue and adventure. Goldwyn announces it for presentation at the Star Theatre Tonight.

HELP ASKED FOR TURKISH VICTIMS

In the interests of the interdenominational Sunday school work, an interesting program was rendered at the high school yesterday. Rev. J. J. Handsaker addressed the students, showing the dire need of the Christian people in Turkey, as the lives of both Mohammedants and Christians are in constant danger, and thousands are without homes or shelter, some of them lacking the barest necessities of life. Mr. Handsaker paid especial tribute to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Rambo, formerly of Baker, Oregon, who sailed September 25 for Turkey as relief agents.

Rev. E. P. Lawrence, who is the county chairman of this work for Armenian relief, is planning for a large Christmas offering from the Sunday schools of the county and for the general campaign in February. Rev. Harold Humbert is secretary of the association, and Miss Georgia Parker is the local assistant secretary. Rev. J. J. Handsaker is director of the Armenian relief work, and is leaving for Grants Pass, where he will conduct meetings in the interest of this interdenominational relief work.

Congress has been asked, at the behest of President Wilson, for authority to send troops into Turkey at once, as the lives of American relief workers are in danger, and for the further reason that only prompt action, according to the report of Col. Wm. Haskell, American commissioner, will avail to save the lives of thousands during the coming winter.
