TWO NEW SUITS BEGUN IN THE CIRCUIT COURT

Al Melhase started suit in the circuit court against Nelson Smith to recover $149.50, with interest, costs and attorney's fee, which he alleges he was compelled to pay to the First State and Savings Bank on a note which he signed as surety for the defendant.

Hattie Engleheart is asking a divorce from Jack Engleheart, on the ground of cruelty. She alleges among other things that defendant hired a man to take her life and that the man fired at her from a revolver. The parties are colored folk.

Two sisters, one of whom married a soldier and the other a sailor, had their wartime marriages annulled at White Plains, N. Y. The girls said they "loved the uniform and not the men."

DODGES DELIVERED

There is joy around the Dodge garage today, for Mr. Wakefield can now meet the demands of those who have been camping on his trail for a new Dodge car—he has just received another carload of this popular machine. As a result, J. B. Mitchell of Bly and F. E. Masten of Poe Valley are now members of the Dodge family.
