

COUNCIL DENIES EXTENSION ON EIGHTH STREET

Refuses Warren Bros. Petition for Extension of Time on Street Work to Next August—Fix Election Date and Name Election Boards... Decision on the Eighth street contract was preceded by lively debate.

FIVE STATES VOTE FOR GOVERNORS

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Elections in five states went to the polls today to ballot for governor, while elections of lesser officials and decisions on constitutional questions faced the voters of several other states.

EVENING OF DREAMS IS TONIGHT'S EVENT

The Evening of Dreams scheduled for this evening at Moose Hall, to be given by the Sunday school class of Mrs. W. S. Slough in order to assist in the raising of funds to purchase and install a new pipe organ in the Presbyterian Church.

DEPUTIES BATTLE WITH WOMEN AT STEEL PLANT

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, Nov. 4.—Bricks and stones flew here today when deputy sheriffs fought with an enraged crowd of women who attempted to prevent workers from entering the Youngstown Sheet & Tube company's plant here this morning.

FIRST DAY'S ROLL CALL GAINS 691

Reports of about two-thirds of the workers engaged in the third Red Cross roll campaign in this city last night showed 691 memberships enrolled at one dollar each.

WEATHER REPORT

Oregon—Tonight and Wednesday, rain with fresh southwesterly winds.

FIRE PREVENTION ALWAYS NEEDED

"Ninety-four fires originated from burning rubbish and caused serious property loss in the principal cities of the Pacific Coast during the month of September, according to records," said Fire Chief Miller today, in discussing Clean-up and Fire Prevention day plans.

JESTER'S BOWLERS WIN FIRST GAME

The team captained by G. H. Jester defeated P. M. Noel's team, two games out of three, in the opening contest of the bowling tournament on the Elks' alleys last night.

CONCRETE WORK ON BUILDING STARTED

Concrete construction work started today on the new two-story building to be erected by Percy Evans at Tenth and Main streets.

GARICH RESIDENCE BOUGHT BY KANSAN

F. M. Garich has sold his residence at the corner of 9th and High streets to Fred A. Ohlmeyer.

DECORATORS TO GET RAISE ON NEW WORK

Painters, paperhangers and decorators have agreed to finish existing contracts at the old wage scale of 75 cents an hour, and the strike of some 15 members of the local union, which seemed imminent last week, did not materialize.

SUNDAY THREE TIMES A WEEK

SARAJEVO, Bosnia, Nov. 4.—Sunday is observed three times a week here.

CHAMBERLAIN AND BAKER IN CLASH

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4.—Secretary of War Baker and Senator Chamberlain of Oregon, formerly chairman of the Senate military committee, clashed sharply today at a sub-committee hearing dealing with the controversy over the exercise of military justice in dealing with men in the federal service.

GRAND JURY DISCUSSES MATTERS OF ROUTINE

The county grand jury convened this morning and took up routine matters of the session. No indictments had been returned up to 2 o'clock and it is understood that the jury will not take up criminal matters, of which there are several pending, for a day or two.

VISITORS FROM MANY COUNTRIES

A report showing the number of visitors by states, and also from countries from outside the United States, from October 12, 1918, to October 13, 1919, has been prepared by H. E. Momyer, assistant superintendent of the Crater Lake national park.

LOCAL MAN GOES TO CONVENTION

Among the matters of importance which are expected to draw a large attendance at the meeting of Klamath post, No. 8, of the American Legion tonight is the necessity of instructing Dr. Fred Westerfelt, who has been asked by Secretary Elvers of the state legion to be a delegate to the Minneapolis national convention, opening November 11, and who leaves for the east tomorrow morning.

HEARING ON LARCENY CHARGE THIS EVENING

Constable J. F. Morley, returned last evening from Dunsmuir, where he had gone for the purpose of bringing back with him, Roy Chamberlain who is wanted here as a fugitive from justice, he having given bonds in the sum of $300, with W. F. Wildey and Bert Cook as sureties, and then having unceremoniously left the State.

DIES AT SHIPPINGTON

Rollo Lee Lewis, age 40 years, died this morning at the Shippington hotel. He was employed by the Klamath Manufacturing company, also acting as a sort of caretaker for the hotel.

Coal is found in commercial quantities in twenty-eight of the states and territories of the United States.

YUMA BANKS ON SUNSHINE RECORD

YUMA, Ariz., Nov. 4.—Emblazoned on sign boards that every traveler into Yuma may read are these legends: "Free Meals Every Day, the Sun Falls to Shine."

STANFORD HEAD TOURING EAST

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Nov. 4.—Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur, president of Stanford, has left here to address the annual conference of the Association of American Universities, at Columbus, Ohio, November 7-8.

STOCKMEN WAGE WAR ON WOLVES

HELENA, Mont., Nov. 4.—Depredations by bears, wolves and mountain lions in Montana have become so damaging that professional hunters and trappers are making good money exterminating the animals.

ANCIENT CEDAR GROVE FOUND

MISSOULA, Mont., Nov. 4.—Cedar trees more than 2,000 years old and still alive and growing have been found in the Kanitsu forest of the first forest service district, according to J. W. Girard, district logging engineer, whose headquarters are here.

EFFORTS UNDER WAY SEEK END OF COAL STRIKE

Garfield in Conference With Head of Operators' Association—Lewis Breaks Silence, Says That Machinery for Settlement is Still Intact... CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—In the face of a virtually unbroken front of 425,000 soft coal miners who have not receded from their original position, the dawn of the second day of the strike found both government officials and mine operators in an optimistic mood.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 4.—

Breaking his silence for the first time since he was served with the restraining order of the federal court last Friday, John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, gave out the following brief statement in regard to the government's efforts to end the strike of approximately 425,000 soft coal miners.

BROWNSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 4.—

United States troops entered Pennsylvania on strike duty today, for the first time since the coal strike started, when a company of infantry arrived here to guard mine interests.

JACOBS SELLS LAND

L. Jacobs has sold 80 acres of very good irrigated land to J. Linsi of Swan Lake. Mr. Linsi will move at once with his family to his new home.

(Continued on page 4)