PRIVATE OWNERSHIP

Superiority Demonstrated in World War

E. N. Hurley, who served throughout the war as chairman of the United States Shipping Board, was asked what in his job had impressed him most. He answered:

"The efficiency of private ownership and operation as compared with public ownership and operation—ALL PRODUCTION CENTERS ON THE COST—you can't get away from that. Shift responsibility for the cost, for the best possible result under a given set of circumstances and you shift the responsibility for efficiency. On the Shipping Board, we shifted this responsibility from private shipbuilding concerns to the Government.

"With the shifting of responsibility of cost to the Government, that keen interest in results which follows private initiative was gone. THERE YOU HAVE THE WHOLE PROBLEM AS BETWEEN PUBLIC OWNERSHIP AND PRIVATE OWNERSHIP STATED.

"I don't know of a government-owned plant that produces more than two-thirds efficiency. In the years to come some way may be found to keep incentive to best endeavor in men under government ownership, but until that is discovered that system may be classed as a failure."

CLASS LUNCHEON

The twelve girls in the first half of the home economics class of the eighth grade at the Central school prepared a delicious luncheon Tuesday for the members of the board of education.

The luncheon was served in the domestic science room, in a very pleasing manner, by Dorothy Horr, Lorene Colson and Edna Bruley.

The menu was as follows:

- Apple and Celery Salad and Wafers
- Veal Buds and Gravy
- Mashed Potatoes, Dressing
- Peas in Tymboles, Bread and Butter
- Pumpkin Pie and Whipped Cream
- Coffee

The board appreciated very much the hospitality of the young ladies and feel that their work both in the preparation and serving of the meal reflects great credit on their teacher, Miss Fannie Virgil, who is head of the home economics department of the city schools.

The guests invited were P. L. Fountain, C. C. Hogue, C. R. DeLap, C. H. Underwood, R. H. Dunbar, Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg and Ida B. Momyer.

Complete stock of rubber footwear in the celebrated Ball Brand, Top Notch and Gold Seal makes, at the K. K. K. Store.

The Roman Catholic diocese of Springfield, Mass., will celebrate its semi-centennial next year.
