THIRST PALACES NOW SELLING SOFT DRINKS

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 10.—The problem of placing the hundreds of Chicago saloons on the "dry" basis is being solved in various and unique ways.

The Rev. Gorge Kilby, general manager of the Chicago Christian Industrial league, is trying one way by turning "saloonist" himself and operating as a soft drink saloon a bar that formerly figured in many newspaper stories as a "notorious resort." In addition to soft drinks, with which it is hoped to retain at least a part of the former patronage of the place, Mr. Kilby is providing club features to make it in fact the "poor man's club," with writing tables and free stationary, a billiard table, books, magazines and reading tables.

A hotel with 300 beds to be let at 10 cents to 25 cents each night is being operated in connection with the club. In the basement shower baths, wash bowls and facilities for the patrons to do their own laundry work are installed. A restaurant in connection completes the hotel's equipment. Cold weather is expected to augment greatly the institution's patronage.

Another former saloon has been converted into a clubhouse for children. The children call it the "Red, White and Blue Club," and at times more than 100 children are reading and playing where the former patrons of the saloon played cards and discussed their steins.

"The Red, White and Blues" were first organized as a part of the work of the women's committee, Council of National Defense, and since then the club has been financed through the efforts of several women who have given a series of charity entertainments for the benefit of the organization.

Some of the functions of the day nursery are exercised by the club which keeps the children of employed mothers during the day. Others of the little "members" are orphans.

Although the place lacks furnishings it has proven very popular with the children of the neighborhood and the women managing it plan to raise $3500 for heat and maintenance through the winter months.

Other Chicago saloons have been converted into restaurants, cafeterias, ice cream and soft drink parlors, coffee and chocolate houses, but the majority still are running as "saloons" with the same fixtures and employees, having substituted a great variety of non-alcoholic drinks for the liquors formerly dispensed.

OLD TAPESTRY IS RESTORED TO PALACE

LONDON, Oct. 3.—(By Mail).—A tapestry woven in Brussels early in the 16th century, one of a set of seven pieces symbolically representing the story of the Seven Deadly Sins and believed to have been bought originally by Cardinal Wolsey and hung in a chamber of the royal palace at Hampton Court, has been restored to the palace after an absence of 270 years. It was recently acquired by a government commission. Found stored away in an old house in Cornwall, the tapestry was bought here in 1910 by the Marquis of Anglesey for $35,000.

TO PRINT MEMOIRS

BERLIN, Oct. 3, (By Mail).—A Berlin publishing company has announced that it is preparing to issue the third volume of "Bismarck's Thoughts and Reminiscences." The heirs of the Iron Chancellors had stipulated that this volume should not be published during the life of the former Emperor William. The publishers announce that they now consider this restriction invalid.

PORTLAND MAN GAINS 30 POUNDS

"I NOW UNDERSTAND WHY SO MANY PEOPLE PRAISE TAN-LAC," SAYS MCGILL.

"I have gained thirty pounds since I commenced taking this Tanlac, and haven't felt so well in twenty five years," said C. A. McGill, a well known employe of the Coast Ship Yards, and who lives at 1043 East Fifteenth St., Portland, Ore., while talking to a Tanlac representative the other day.

"I can now understand why so many people all over the United States and Canada are publicly endorsing Tanlac," continued Mr. McGill, "for I have tried it myself, and out of all the medicine and treatments I have taken during the past twelve years, Tanlac is the only thing that has done me any good at all. I suffered something awful from stomach and kidney troubles, and ever since these troubles began my condition had gradually grown worse. Everything I ate soured on my stomach and I would be bloated up with gas for hours at a time, and suffered terribly from shortness of breath. I had pains in the small of my back nearly all the time, and when I stooped over for anything I could hardly straighten up again. I seldom ever got a good night's rest, and felt just as tired and worn out every morning as I did when I went to bed at night. In fact, I had a tired, draggy feeling all the time, and it just seemed that all my energy had left me. I suffered from constipation, too, and often had raging headaches, and finally got to where I would be completely exhausted if I walked only a few blocks.

"To tell the truth, I was just about disgusted with medicine, and everything else for that matter, but I had read so much about Tanlac helping others that I decided to see what it would do for me. Well sir, Tanlac gave me the surprise of my life, for by the time I had finished my first bottle of this medicine I was feeling like a different man altogether. I stuck to Tanlac until I had taken seven bottles, and now you won't find a healthier or stronger man anywhere than I am. It is simply wonderful the way I have gained in weight and strength. The truth of the matter is, Tanlac just knocked my troubles winding, and I am in such fine condition now that I can do as much work in a day as I ever could. I have a good appetite and eat just anything that is set before me, and as much as I want, and I never suffer the least bit afterwards. The pains in my back are a thing of the past, and so are the headaches, and when I hit the bed at night I go to sleep and am dead to the world until time to get up in the morning. I don't have to take medicine of any kind now, but if I ever do again, it will certainly be Tanlac. I am buying this bottle for my wife, as she seems to be in a badly run down condition and I believe Tanlac will straighten her up alright."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorella by the James Merc., Co.—Adv.

Will Preside Overy Very Important Convention of the Hoboes' League

JEFF DAVIS

Many intricate problems will be considered at the forthcoming annual convention in New York City of the American Hoboes' league, over which Jeff Davis, "King of the Hoboes," will preside. One weighty question has to do with the new style of day coaches and Pullmans designed with the heartless purpose of making "beating it" very uncomfortable for knights of the road.

WOMEN HAVE POWER

LUXEMBURG, Oct. 1.—(By Mail).—Women of Luxemburg share political privileges with men under the new law in this little state ruled by the Grand Duchess Charlotte. Women candidates for the chamber of deputies already have been picked by several political groups and anti-suffragists concede that some of them will be elected.

Voting in Luxemburg also was made compulsory although the percentage of abstentions has been unusually low.

The orange was originally a pear-shaped fruit about the size of the common wild cherry. Its evolution is believed by naturalists to be due to twelve hundred years of cultivation.

WAS EXPERIENCE NOT NEW TO JENKINS

William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, Mex., who after being robbed of $30,000, was kidnapped from his place of business in Puebla and is being held by bandits for a $150,000 ransom. He was kidnapped once before, his ranch foreman killed, stock stolen and he himself held for $25,000 ransom.

SOUTH POLE FLYER READY FOR START

LONDON, Oct. 9, (By Mail).—John L. Cope, leader and organizer of the British Imperial Antarctic Expedition, states that the preparations for his flight to the South Pole are well advanced. Experts are now engaged in designing the plane in which the flight will be made.

"We have received a terrible blow in the death of Brigadier General Lee, who had signed on with the expedition as chief of the aeronautical staff and would have piloted the plane to the South Pole," said Mr. Cope. "I am now in negotiation with one of the most famous airmen in the world, who, I think, will take the place of General Lee. I cannot disclose his name, but he has won the Victoria Cross as well as the Distinguished Service Order for his magnificent exploits as an airman on the western front."

Mr. Cope stated that he was not merely going to fly to the pole, but that he intended to use the airplane throughout the six or seven years that the expedition would be on the ice. The Antarctic had never been chartered properly, he said, owing to the fact that many parts were quite inaccessible on foot. It was his intention to chart the whole Antarctic from the air.

Second in command to Mr. Cope will be Ernest Joyce, who accompanied the first Scott expedition to the South Pole and was a member of both Shackleton expeditions.

CHECK THAT COLD RIGHT AWAY

Dr. King's New Discovery has relieved colds and coughs for fifty years

It was an unusually high quality remedy when introduced half a century ago. Not once in all the years since then has the quality been allowed to deteriorate. Its effectiveness in combating colds and coughs has been proved thousands of times in thousands of families. Taken by grownups and given to the little ones for the safe, sure treatment of colds and grippe, coughs and croup, it leaves absolutely no disagreeable after-effects. Get a bottle at your druggist's today. 60c. and $1.20.
