ASKS WAR MOTHERS TO SPONSOR PARDONS

Mrs. John F. Linscott, president of the Pinella, Fla., War Mothers' Chapter, wants her national organization to sponsor a resolution asking pardon for every U. S. soldier now serving a courtmartial sentence in European prisons or at home. She had four sons in the war. She now wears one gold star.

VOICES WOMAN'S IDEAS AT ROUND TABLE

Miss Lillian Wald of New York, leader in suffrage affairs, is one of the few women to sit in at the Round Table Industrial Conference. She was named to the place when Carrie Chapman Catt, national suffragist, could not attend. She is seated in the "Public" group.

States forest service and Miss Lucille Menger were married on horseback here recently, all parties to the ceremony being mounted. Justice of the Peace F. M. Douglas performed the ceremony and as the service making them man and wife was concluded, the bride and groom shook hands with the justice and the spectators and galloped away to Crane's cabin in the hills. They will spend their honeymoon in the Crazy mountains, where Crane watches for forest fires and patrols the forest.
