EXTENSION COURSE FOR PRISONERS

PULLMAN, Wash., Nov. 15.—Extension instruction by mail will be offered to approximately 600 prisoners in the Walla Walla state penitentiary, according to a plan agreed upon by Superintendent Henry Drum and Director F. F. Nalder of the department of general college extension of the Washington State college here. The correspondence teaching will be in different fields of agriculture and applied technology, and is intended to supplement the night school already in operation at the prison.

Dr. Walder, under whose supervision this departure in extension teaching will be organized, formerly was educational director of the state reformatory at Monroe, Wash., where he became interested in the study of criminology. He went to the University of California and engaged in advanced research in that field, and later, for the university, toured the United States, visiting and studying penal institutions. The outcome of this study was a book soon to be published by the University of California.

The New Records are here 300 of them at Klamath Falls Music House, 725 Main. 15-11

MANY CABARETS CLOSED IN BERLIN

BERLIN, Oct. 2.—(Correspondence Associated Press).—Fifty-one of the more notorious of Berlin's famous, or infamous, night-life cafes and cabarets, where all closing regulations were ignored, electric lights were burned until morning, and scenes of drunkenness were enacted, were raided last night by the new safety police and squads of the old force. Countless arrests were made, and the proprietors of 60 other cafes were notified that their turn was coming. There were so many that all could not be raided in one evening.

The bands were playing, and all was joyous, when one lone police officer in plain clothes entered each of the 51 resorts. At first he was greeted with laughter, but when the exits were closed most of the patrons and many of the loungers dived for the cellars, where they were easily rounded up. As fast as they could be herded together they were placed on motor trucks guarded by police or soldiers and taken to the police stations.

The scenes were exciting, as women became hysterical and men offered huge sums of money for their release.

It was a variegated throng that was gathered at the police stations and finally at police headquarters at the Alexander square. Some tried to laugh the affair away, others were angry and all seemed ashamed at being caught. The throng included not only a number of illicit traders and their women friends, but several socially well-known people as well. The police announce the raids will continue.

With the raids the authorities have, incidentally, accomplished a lessening of the illicit trade in food, for the cabarets and cafes and gambling clubs were the prime offenders, and boldly offered either free meals or meals at ridiculously low prices to prospective customers.

Better Let Us Patch 'Em Up

This is the time to look over your tires with the idea of making them last through the winter. Of course, if you must have new tires, Diamonds are the only ones to buy at this time of the year—or at any other time, so far as that goes—but the idea we wish to convey is that we can make the old ones last through the bad weather, and save you money on your tire bill by repairing the worn ones. Bring them in, and if they are worth repairing we will tell you what it will cost—if they are not worth repairing, we will tell you that, just as readily. We can't make a new tire out of one that is worn out, but we can take a damaged tire and repair it so you will get many more miles out of it before it goes to the junk pile.
