ZARAD

Local Direction:

Klamath County High School Student Body Association

Toronto (Can.) Evening Mail of Sept. 17, 1919, said:

"Francesca Zarad, like Dr. Wullner, is an interpreter of song. Her art indeed might best be catalogued under the term finesse in song. Madame Zarad displayed a voice of remarkable range, and used it, even in the most difficult parts, with beauty and power which have never been surpassed by any visiting artist. SHE IS WITHOUT QUESTION A VOCAL VIRTUOSO, rivaling SCHUMANN-HEINK, SEMBRICH and GADSKI."

MAX ZACK, Conductor of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, telegraphed Madame Zarad's manager after her appearance with that excellent organization:

"Zarad delights four thousand people with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra last night. Persistent recalls and wildest enthusiasm."

Competent critics in all parts of the country vie with each other in coining superlative sentences in lauding Zarad's fine artistry.

HEAR ZARAD SING TOSTI'S "GOOD-BYE," then you will have heard the acme of vocalism; and "The Last Rose of Summer," and "The Rosary," and "The Lass with the Delicate Air"—You will be THRILLED, you will be INSPIRED, you will be UPLIFTED. There is No Other Singer Just Like ZARAD.

the Polish chief of the intelligence department of the All-Russian government.

He defines the Bolshevik order as, "There is no more law. Go forth, burn, pillage, kill and you will be rich and happy." The illiterate and credulous believe this and after two years the world sees the ruin of Russia.

According to the professor, they have no axes, scythes, shovels or nails in Soviet Russia. The Council of National Commissaries is ordering that all the valuable English textile machines in Russia be converted into such utensils, as there is no cotton in Soviet Russia and all textile works are idle.

Of the chemical industry there is not a trace. All manufactured goods have been exhausted. Machines are idle.

The professor estimates that all the debt of Russia could be paid up by exporting its vast supply of timber and that its great stores of hard and soft coal would suffice the world for 150 years. Russia's surplus of iron, copper, zinc and naphtha, gold and the wealth in fish of the Pacific and Northern oceans and Siberian rivers, and its fur industries could be utilized as a firm foundation for any economical and financial policy that might be adopted by the Russian government.

"But to accomplish this, it is necessary to have normal living conditions, continuity of work and assurance of the integrity of person and property," says Professor Ossendofsky. Toward attainment of these conditions, he believes the All-Russian government at Omsk is making progress.

"Having freed from Bolshevism one-third of Asia," he says, "the Omsk government has preserved untouched the whole of the gold reserve belonging to the former Russian empire, preserved it for the whole of the Russian people. Immense sums have been assigned for the purchase of agricultural machines and fertilizers. The government has sworn to convene a constituent assembly which shall decide the long question of distribution of land among the peasants."

"The Bolsheviks having promised and actually given land to the peasants, began to introduce the communal principle into its agrarian policy and its method of distributing supplies with the consequence that all Soviet Russia has been shaken by peasant uprisings."

THE REAL TOBACCO CHEW

put up in two styles

RIGHT CUT is a short-cut tobacco

W-B CUT is a long fine-cut tobacco

There's nothing saved by chewing ordinary tobacco. A little chew of that good rich-tasting tobaccogoes a lot farther, and its good taste lasts all the way through.

Little chew—lasting—satisfying. That's why it's a real saving to buy this class of tobacco.
