

We are pleased to announce the arrival of new Silk Blouses Special at $6.50

Let us say at the outset that if you are interested in keeping down your apparel expense, then you ought to come here and provide for your Fall and Winter Blouse needs before this limited allotment is gone.

And even if you do not need Blouses for immediate wear, it's well when such very exceptional values are offered to anticipate now and provide for your future needs.

The price is $6.50; this despite the fact that prices of Silk fabrics are advancing at an almost unbelievable rate; and at today's market this price would hardly pay for the fabrics only.

The styles are new, authentic, appealing; the fabrics are Georgette Crepe and Crepe de Chine; they are in the wanted shades. They are dependably made and cut so as to insure correct fitting.

Our previous sale of these BLOUSES brought a very ready response, and the quantities we had provided were quickly absorbed. The quantity in this new allotment is limited and no more of the same styles can be obtained.

The Woman's Store

Are You "Down and Out?"

Did you know that when it comes to figuring out the right Christmas present for each member of the family most men mope around in a dark-brown study and then finish in disgust by buying the wrong thing?

Well! This is generally the case, but there are presents that are equally as good for all the members from baby up to grandmother.

Take a good Victrola or Player-piano for instance—why, they bring pleasure and educate in music at the same time.

When in doubt remember, buy music for Christmas. Convenient terms if necessary.

To the Buying Public:

Some of our customers know now that when we say a certain time we mean it. Four o'clock means 4 o'clock—not 3 o'clock. When we advertise an article, you can buy it as advertised. When we say a TWO DAYS' SALE, we mean it. We use our own original ideas in advertising and you get the benefit. It's up to the newspapers to tell you what we did on overalls and every other line in the house.

In the future, we will maintain the same policy: ONE PRICE TO ALL. BETTER SERVICE is our aim, and if DURABILITY is what you want, we have it for you.

Haw, Haw, Haw, Ho, Ho, Ho, Hee, Hee, Hee AIN'T IT FUNNY?

Just to think that anyone would try to bamboozle the people into believing that all this wonderful service you get is absolutely free!

Just take your pencil and figure with me for a moment, and let's see what we can find out.

FIRST—Suppose my rent is high, say $100 for 30 days. Who pays that $100? I do; but how do I get that $100? I get it from you.

SECOND—If I should hire, say two or three clerks at $5 to $6 per day, who pays them? I do, every day. That means from $10 to $18 per day more. Fair enough.

THIRD and Last Item—Figure I have an expensive delivery system. What will that cost to maintain? $100 at least. I pay that also.

Now, where does my money come from to pay all these three items? From the public, of course, who pays me.

Now, subtract Low Rent, No Hired Help and No Delivery from the above items and the answer is:

MY PRICES. SURE, MONEY TALKS
