At the Theatres

Honors came thick and fast to Billie Rhodes, the piquant picture star, during Fleet Week in Los Angeles. Besides the pleasure she derived from having her first W. W. Hodgkinson release, "The Blue Bonnet," selected as the feature attraction at the spacious Kinema Theatre for the big celebration period, Miss Rhodes was prevailed upon by her horde of admirers among Admiral Rodman's sailors to accept the invitation of a government aviator to accompany him on a trip among the clouds as a special Fleet Week attraction. Arriving at the hangar for her first flying trip, the star of "The Blue Bonnet" was greeted by a large crowd, and showed no signs of nervousness when David E. Thompson the pilot tucked her into the machine. As the airplane started Miss Rhodes seemed perfectly at ease as though flying held no more terrors for her than posing before the camera. The airplane soared all over the city and thrilled throngs even more than it did Miss Rhodes, who, on leaving the machine, appeared to be somewhat disappointed because she had not been a party to a loop-the-loop or a tail spin. "Oh, it was wonderful!" exclaimed the star. "But I had hoped my presence in the machine would not prevent Mr. Thompson from doing some stunts. He was horribly careful.

At the Liberty Theatre tonight.

Maquette Clark, the exquisite little Paramount star who is recognized as one of the foremost photoplay stars on the screen, is presented at the Temple Theatre tonight in the screamingly funny farce, "Miss George Washington," directed by J. Searle Dawley, in which the little star plays the part of a girl who cannot tell the truth, but who is reputed never to have told a lie in her life. It is one of the cleverest roles in which she has appeared. In the supporting cast are such players as Frank Losee, Niles Welch, Florence Marten, Joseph Gleason, Herbert Prior and others.

Years ago the rodeo was the biggest thing in the West. It was the occasion when all the wild riders, broncho busters and sure shots of the West assembled to display their prowess. Such a scene is revived in "The Money Corral," a new Artercraft picture starring William S. Hart which will be shown at the Star Theatre tonight. It was written by Mr. Hart and Lambert Hillyer and they also collaborated in its direction. Jane Novak is the leading woman, heading an excellent supporting cast. The rodeo scene of this picture was expensive and took lots of time, but it justified the effort for it gives a touch of realism that could not otherwise have been secured. Many punchers, Indians, Mexicans, cowgirls and others came to Hollywood to make the rodeo scenes and over a thousand persons appeared therein. "The Money Corral" is said to be the most exciting film that has been produced in months.

KIDNEYS NEVER CAUSE BACKACHE

Rub pain, soreness and stiffness right out with old "St. Jacobs Liniment"

Kidneys cause backache? No! They have no nerves, therefore can not cause pain. Listen! Your backache is caused by lumbago, sciatica or a strain, and the quickest relief is soothing, penetrating "St. Jacobs Liniment." Rub it right on the ache or tender spot, and instantly the pain, soreness, stiffness and lameness disappears. Don't stay crippled! Get a small trial bottle of "St. Jacobs Liniment" from your druggist and lumber up. A moment after it is applied you'll wonder what became of the backache, sciatica or lumbago pain. "St. Jacobs Liniment" stops any pain at once. It is harmless and doesn't burn or discolor the skin. It's the only application to rub on a weak, lame or painful back, or for lumbago, sciatica, neuritis, rheumatism, sprains or a strain.

Queer Nest.

"Sunsh venture close to the shore to lay their eggs and guard them," says Dr. E. F. Bigelow in Boys' Life. "This is a strange fact. They begin in the southern part of our country in April, and may be found farther north in the summer preparing a circular nest in the sand by removing all the twigs, plants and debris from a sunny spot about as large as one's head. Then by swaying her body the female removes the sand and gravel to a depth of from three to four inches. Exactly how is this digging done? Is some of the sand and gravel taken in the fish's mouth? It is interesting to note what cozy places these nests occupy. Such spots are sometimes like miniature houses as the aquatic plants are so close together at the top that one may well imagine them to form windows for sun parlors. When the young are hatched the sunsh, like the bullhead, guards the nest against all intruders."

The Romans are said to have been the first to use feather beds.

NEW PROCESS IN SCULPTURE

Invention of Italian Scientist Will Revolutionize Work of Masters of the Chisel.

A process for producing bas-reliefs by photography is the fruit of the invention of an Italian scientist.

The basis of the invention is the property possessed by a film of chromium gelatin of swelling in proportion to the intensity of the light falling upon it. The swelling is greater with a low than with a high intensity, so that the light passing through a photographic negative produces upon a chromium gelatin plate a positive in distinct relief.

The transparency of an ordinary negative, however, is not truly proportional to the relief of the original model, but by an ingenious automatic device involving double exposure this difficulty is avoided and a negative is obtained having its lights and shades correctly graded to produce the effect of relief.

The Eskimo language is so polysynthetic that one word is able to express a whole sentence. For illustration: the word "Potovog," which means "The hairy side of the skin is getting loose."
