Mrs. J. E. Bratton. The visitors present were: Mrs. C. F. Winnek, Mrs. A. M. Worden, Mrs. Austin Hayden, and Mrs. G. A. Massey.

Last night Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt presented her pupil, Mrs. Marjorie McClure Gallagher in a most enjoyable concert in Houbton's Opera House.

Mrs. Gallagher is a Klamath Falls girl and as such has a place in our hearts. Her voice is thoroughly lovely, and her high tones are so clear and sweet and resonant that they rivaled those of the flute in the numbers in which Mr. Fletcher so ably rendered obligatos.

The numbers with violin obligatos by Mr. Borel were also beautiful, the little encore "Sorter Miss You" being especially appealing.

The "Jewel Song" from Faust and Tosti's "Good Bye" were given with splendid dramatic effect. In fact Mrs. Gallagher's personality is charming and she won her audience from the start. It was a disappointment not to hear Miss Gaddis in a piano number but she promises to appear in the near future. Mrs. Zumwalt substituted for her, playing a Military Polonaise by Tschalkowsky and Paderewski's Minuet both of which were received with applause.

Mrs. Beauchamp's readings were delightful and showed clearly that she is a professional and has mastered her art. Klamath Falls hopes to hear her again soon. The "costume numbers" by Harriet Sugarman and Esther Haines added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

Mrs. Zumwalt's accompaniments, as always were a feature deserving of special mention.

This is St. Cecilia's day; the patron saint of music. Sister Angelica, musical director of Sacred Heart Convent, has most appropriately chosen this day to present her pupils of the St. Cecilia club in concert. The Assembly room of the Sacred Heart church has been prepared for this first recital of the season and those who will be privileged to hear it will find a great treat in store for them.

The Selective Draft social of the Epworth League was given Thursday night at the Methodist Church. It is reported to have been a great success, the being almost one hundred young couples present.

The greater part of the evening was taken up with contests of various kinds between Companies A, B, C and D, companies being chosen by the months of birthdays. Delicious refreshments were served by those who were appointed to take charge of this portion of the reception.

The committees that were in charge of this social were: Reception, the Misses Esther Calkins, Vera Morgan and Frances McClain; Registration, Josephine Upp and Martha Upp; Refreshments, Mrs. Will Holloway, Mrs. Guy Saterlee, Mrs. Lee Merritt and Mrs. Lawrence Phelps; and Advertising, Mrs. Fry and Miss Van Allen Fry.

This is the first Epworth League Social given this winter, but other entertainments will no doubt be given later in the season.

Dale and Don Soule, sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bratton celebrated their twelfth and tenth birthdays with a six o'clock dinner party at their home on High street Thursday afternoon. As Don Soule was away on his tenth birthday which was in August, they had a birthday dinner together, each having a birthday cake with candles on them. Many presents were given the boys. Covers were laid for ten.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bratton, Miss Viola Campbell, Miss Helen Caldwell, Mrs. Frank Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Burton and daughter Rosalie.

Mrs. C. B. Browne entertained on Tuesday at a luncheon given at her home on Ewauna Heights. The occasion was in honor of her mother, Mrs. H. A. Burton, who is visiting here from Pendleton, Oregon. Those present were: Mrs. James Watkins Jr., Mrs. James Watkins, Sr., Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg and Mrs. Ida M. Browne.

Mrs. L. L. McDonald entertained at three tables of cards Thursday afternoon at her home on Klamath Avenue. Five hundred was played throughout the afternoon, and dainty refreshments were served. Those present were: Mrs. R. A. Emmitt, Mrs. W. P. Johnson, Mrs. Iva North, Mrs. Will Weeden, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Bert Cook, Mrs. T. Weeden, Mrs. G. W. Wilson, Mrs. Louis G. Hoagland, Mrs. Roderick M. Smith, Mrs. Vernie Houston, Miss Clem, Mrs. B. E. Withrow, Mrs. William Powell and Mrs. L. L. McDonald.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent, when the Happy Hour Club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. P. Johnson, at her home on Walnut street. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were: Mrs. J. H. Hamilton, Mrs. J. A. Newham, Mrs. George Biehn, Mrs. George Humphrey, Mrs. Sam Summers, Mrs. John Johnson, Mrs. Iva North, Mrs. L. L. McDonald, Mrs. W. J. Steinmetz, Mrs. R. A. Emmitt, Mrs. W. G. Wilson, Mrs. Van Valkenburg, Mrs. George Hurn, and Mrs. Reckard.

A regular meeting of the Rebekahs was held last night in the I. O. O. F. Hall. Initiation and election of officers took place after which was held the monthly banquet. The following officers were elected: Noble Grand—Glendora Martin. Vice Grand—Hettie Garrett. Recording Secretary—Alice Z. Goeller. Financial Secretary—Mary R. Hogue. Treasurer—Adeline Cofer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hosley entertained at dinner last Thursday evening at their home in the Lorenz Apartments. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ramsby, Elizabeth and Martin Ramsby and Miss Minnie Barnum.

Word has been received by friends of Miss Queritta Brown, a former local girl, announcing her marriage on November 1st, to Othel E. Lee, an army aviator. The couple were married in San Diego and will make their home in that city. They spent their honeymoon trip in Los Angeles. This was a great surprise to her many friends here and the best of wishes are extended to her.

The P. E. O. Society met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Sid Evans on Ninth street. At the meeting they elected Mrs. Sid Evans as Vice President to fill the place of Mrs. Claude Chastain, who has left the city, and Mrs. Orva Earnest as Treasurer. Those present were: Mrs. R. G. Groesbeck, Mrs. A. M. Collier, Mrs. Arthur Wilson, Mrs. Verle Brewbaker, Mrs. Orva Earnest, Mrs. Bert Thomas, and Mrs. Sid Evans.

When your friends drop in they'll enjoy dancing to your Gulbransen

In fact a little more Pep would do us all good.

The joy of living depends upon the liver, and then there are a few folks who can go home and jolly themselves into thinking they are having a good time without the stimulating influence of good music. Some of the livest wires are old in age but young in spirit, so we suggest music, and if you possess a good Victrola then get a Gulbransen, have more music and enjoyment out of life and live longer. Gulbransen Players are Nationally Priced $495 up.

New Building The Store That's Different 507 Main Street

A strong drama of life in the North will be shown at the Star Theatre on Sunday when Select Pictures presents Mitchell Lewis in that star's latest production, "Faith of the Strong."

In "Faith of the Strong" Mr. Lewis is seen as Paul La Rue, a lawless lumberjack who rules one-half of the lumber camp of Louisiana Rey.

DRIVER INJURED IN RUNAWAY ACCIDENT

J. W. Kincaid, a teamster in the yards of the Big Basin Lumber company, had a leg fractured yesterday when his horse ran away. He is in the hospital and at last reports was resting as easily as possible under the circumstances.

Proof That Snails Have Sense.

Those who contend that snails are without sense may be referred to the experiment of a lady who proved otherwise. First she touched the mouth of a water snail with a little piece of lettuce, producing as a result a number of rapid mouth movements. At a later stage, as she was doing this, she also touched its foot or creeping sole with a glass rod. Finally, she so accustomed the snail to associate the touch of the glass rod with the coming of food that its mouth would begin to move hungrily at the pressure of the rod on its foot, even when no food was offered.

The effect of the training, we are told, lasted for 96 hours after it had ceased. Then, like a human being might, the snail began to sulk, and responded no further.
