WANT U. S. GOODS IN RUMANIA

BUCHAREST, Nov. 5. (By Mail.)—American manufactured goods are in demand in Rumania. The stores in Bucharest are doing almost as great a business as in the pre-war days. France has been sending large quantities of goods into the country, particularly light wearing apparel, silk stockings, toilet soaps and cosmetics.

Prices still are abnormally high. One sees American shoes in the shop windows at the normal equivalent of $28 a pair. Any article stamped "American" has a ready sale. Rumanians are keen for anything from the United States, whether it be food, articles of wear, or manufactured objects.

"Why doesn't America send more goods here?" the business man constantly asks. "There is a wonderful field in Rumania for American commerce. We would rather trade with the United States than any other country. We need your manufactured products, your automobiles, farm implements, gas engines, lathes, sewing machines, cash registers, typewriters."

Canada is preparing to send its products to Rumania. The Canadian government, following its course in Greece and Serbia, has lent Rumania fifty million dollars to pay for these goods.

EMBARGO PLACED ON IRISH CATTLE

DUBLIN, Nov. 11. (By Mail.)—The government has issued an order restricting the export of fat cattle from Ireland to the British markets to 6960 beasts per week. Last year the average number exported from Ireland was 12,300 and in the last two months of the year the average rose to 14,000 per week.

The restrictive order is stated to have been issued because "urgent representations have been made to the food controller" by stock owners in England. There is no restriction on the import into England of foreign meat. As 95 per cent of Irish cattle go to the British markets, Irish farmers complain of the restriction now made on their product.

Prior to the discovery that cotton could be made to yield a plentiful supply of oil, millions of pounds of seed were destroyed or left to decay in heaps.

APOLOGIZES TO IRISH CITIZENS

DUBLIN, Nov. 11. (By Mail.)—Nigel Baring, Master of the Fox Hunt, having made some observations which were resented regarding the country's mourning for political prisoners, the stoppage of the local hunt was threatened. Mr. Baring wrote to the Limerick papers.
