CHRISTMAS REALLY NOT FAR AWAY

Ordinarily it is possible to secure prompt delivery of merchandise ordered in November and December. receiving the goods in time for Christmas buyers. That is impossible this year. In hardly any line could goods ordered no whe secured until next year. Through having ordered very early, in some cases as long ago as January, we have secured unusually large and attractive stocks of fine Christmas presents. Our full lines are now on display. You may make selections and have them reserved by paying a small deposit.

Buy now gifts to be engraved.

Presents of Silver, French Ivory, Toiletware, Cigarette Cases, Gold and Silver Novelties, Wedding and Gift Rings, Watches, and other articles that should have initials or monograms, must be purchased much earlier than usual to have the engraving done before Christmas.

You are always sure of good quality at Upp's.

otic and useful. For their loyalty to the United States of America they are asking to be enfranchised.

Mrs. Gertrudé Bonnen, a Sioux ndian, secretary of the society, offers the war record of the Indians an example of their loyalty.

"Out of 300,000 Indians in this country there were 10,000 who enlisted for war services," she says. They were not citizens and the enistments were purely voluntary. Based on this percentage 12,000,000 Americans of the total population would have had to enlist to equal the record of the Indians."

Attack Indian Bureau Many Interesting speeches were included on the three-day program prepared by the Indians. In one of these the Rev. Philip Gordon, an Indian priest, attacked the Indian bureau in Washington, which, he said, had outgrown its usefulness. It was created years ago when red men
