

Better Let Us Patch 'Em Up

This is the time to look over your tires with the idea of making them last through the winter. Of course, if you must have new tires, Diamonds are the only ones to buy at this time of the year—or at any other time, so far as that goes—but the idea we wish to convey is that we can make the old ones last through the bad weather, and save you money on your tire bill by repairing the worn ones. Bring them in, and if they are worth repairing we will tell you what it will cost—if they are not worth repairing, we will tell you that, just as readily. We can't make a new tire out of one that is worn out, but we can take a damaged tire and repair it so you will get many more miles out of it before it goes to the junk pile.

Whose Word Is Better Than Your Druggist's?

Physicians, Dentists and Nurses Rely on Him—Isn't That Sufficient Reason for Public Confidence?

There are many good reasons for the confidence the public repose in their druggist. First, he is educated to know by four years of College and Practical training. Second, ethical physicians everywhere rely implicitly on his skill—they trust him. This faith, of course, originates and is maintained by the professional service rendered by the druggist in filling prescriptions. Everyone admits this confidence when offering a prescription to a druggist.

Very few men can be honest in one department of their business, and dishonest in the other. Mr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde exist very little in real life. If you trust your druggist to fill your prescription, therefore, in all fairness, you must accept his word against the word of unknown and far distant manufacturers.

To recommend an article, the druggist must of course, know what it contains and how it is made, and this was one reason for the formation of a co-operative national association of druggists and physicians who prepare a complete line of household remedies and toilet goods. This association is the American Druggists Syndicate, popularly called A. D. S., which boasts a membership of 28,000 druggists and physicians, the largest of its kind in the world. For 10 years these professional men met annually for conference in order to obtain the best formulas for its products that the combined skill and experience of its members could produce. All these articles are non-secret, strictly ethical. The ingredients in all A. D. S. preparations conform to the standard advocated by the government, and cannot be excelled in quality. As the association is strictly co-operative, its merchandise is also sold at the very lowest prices possible for the quality.

In Klamath Falls there are three druggists who will tell you that A. D. S. Household Remedies, like Milk of Magnesia, Aspirin, Digestive Tablets, Peridol Tooth Paste, etc., are the best that they can find in all markets. These three druggists stand squarely behind every A. D. S. product with an unqualified guarantee and a hearty endorsement. Such a recommendation is the greatest that can obtain, based on the scientific knowledge of tens of thousands of experts and fulfilled by a man you know well and must trust implicitly—your druggist.

Whenever you need a household remedy or toilet article, ask an A. D. S. Druggist to recommend one to you. All A. D. S. Druggists identify themselves with prominent window or counter displays. Ask one about A. D. S. products. If you would trust him to fill your prescription, it's only fair to take his word about the merchandise he sells.

AT THE THEATERS

Please Get Married is the intriguing title of the Screen Classics, Inc., photoproduction starring dainty Viola Dana, that is booked as the feature attraction at the Liberty Theatre. The picture is an adaptation of the riotous farce by James Cullen and Lewis Allen Browne that was produced on the stage in New York by Oliver Morosco, and enjoyed a run of six solid months.

The plot of this comedy is described as most adroit. It has to do with the honeymoon of an adoring young couple who, through a combination of embarrassing circumstances, are interrupted as often as they attempt to spoon.

In the first place it turns out that a burglar, and not a parson, performed the ceremony and it is only after the pair of youngsters have left on their bridal tour that the bride's parents learn the astounding fact that they may not be married at all. They set out in pursuit, but the newlyweds have a start on them, and a great number of unusual adventures befall them in the little mountain hotel where they seek shelter and solitude.

Finis Fox, of the Screen Classics, Inc., scenario staff, adapted the stage farce to the screen. The production of "Please Get Married" was made under the personal supervision of Maxwell Karger, Director General, with John E. Ince directing. Special art interiors and a number of surpassingly beautiful exterior views are contained in the picture, which is said to move with the rapid tempo of French farce.

In the cast supporting the winsome star are Antrim Short, Margaret Campbell, Harry Todd, Emmett King, Ralph Bell, Thomas Ricketta, Hugh Fay, Joseph Hazleton, W. K. Mesick, W. F. Moran, Daisy Robinson and Thomas Hadley.

"Please Get Married" is one of the "fewer and better" productions made by Screen Classics, Inc., and distributed by Metro. For the year 1919-1920, thirty-six pictures of the "fewer and better" sort will make up the Metro output. All are based on stage successes or celebrated novels.

The Public Speaking Class under the direction of E. Estelle Carrier will give at the Star Theatre on Saturday night a skit entitled "Popping The Question." The farce is one of Buckstones, and is a clever production, one might say a scream from

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Klamath. No. 1103, Equity.

Gus Melhase, Plaintiff, vs. Ben Dayton, Defendant.

Notice is hereby given that, by virtue of an execution and order of sale, duly issued out of the above entitled court and cause on the 2nd day of December, 1919, upon a decree made and entered of record in said Circuit Court on the 1st day of December, 1919, and in favor of the above named plaintiff and against the above named defendant, directing the sale of the premises therein and hereinafter described, to satisfy the sum of $1900.00, with interest thereon from the 19th day of September, 1914 at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum, $250 attorney's fee, $17.45 costs and disbursements, and accruing costs.

Now, therefore, in compliance with said writ, I have duly levied on said premises and will, on Tuesday, January 6, 1920, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, at the front door of the county court house, in the City of Klamath Falls, Klamath County, State of Oregon, sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, all the right, title and interest of the above named defendant, in and to the following described real property, situated in Klamath County, State of Oregon, to wit:

The northeast quarter of section 1, Township 29 south, Range 11 1/2 East of Willamette Meridian.

or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy said execution, together with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

The proceeds of said sale will be applied in the satisfaction of said execution order and decree, interest costs and accruing costs, and the overplus, if any there be, paid into court to be further applied as by law directed.

Dated at Klamath Falls, Oregon, December 2, 1919.

start to finish. An old bachelor concludes to marry and poses the question to his ward. He then asks the advice of two of his old maid friends, who understood him that he is asking each for her hand. Complications follow.

The cast appear upon the stage in the following order: Ellen Murry, the ward, Lucille Beckley; Bobbin, the maid, Elizabeth Grigsby; Henry Thornton, Paul Keller; Henry Primrose, Kenneth Case; Miss Biffin, Fern Hanks; Miss Winterblossom, Freda Biehn.

Matinee will be given at 2:30 p. m. Saturday.

LONDON, Oct. 16. (By Mail)—"Haybox" cooking, the English adaptation of American "fireless cooking", promises to become increasingly popular among English housewives during the coming winter because of the urgent need for fuel economy. The term is derived from the fact that hay, one of the most suitable non-conductors of heat, is almost exclusively used as the "packing" for the "Made in England" type of fireless cooker, in both the commercially manufactured and the home-made product.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

IT'S GRANDMOTHER'S RECIPE TO BRING BACK COLOR AND LUSTRE TO HAIR

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients for 50 cents a large bottle, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.
