

The Musical Study Club Of Klamath Falls

Announces Its

First Season of Concerts by Best Artists

ALICE NIELSEN——

AMERICA'S GREATEST LYRIC SOPRANO,
TUESDAY, DECEMBER 30

RUTH ST. DENIS——

CONCERT DANCERS, AND ELLIS RHODES, TENOR, IN AN INTERPRETATIVE PROGRAMME, EARLY IN JANUARY

CECIL FANNING——

MOST POPULAR AMERICAN BARITONE, IN FEBRUARY
ALL CONCERTS TO BE GIVEN AT HOUSTON'S OPERA
HOUSE, AND DATES OF LAST TWO CONCERTS TO BE GIVEN BY PUBLICATION LATER.

These artists stand highest in this profession in this country and are brought to Klamath Falls at great expense by the Musical Study Club, whose object is to cultivate the best in music in this community. Realizing the magnitude of the work undertaken by the Musical Study Club, and desiring to advance the artistic as well as the material interests of the city, the following gentlemen have generously offered to act as patrons to this series of concerts, viz:

Capt. J. W. Siemens
Charles Wood Eberlein
A. J. Voye
Dr. Geo. H. Merryman
A. E. Whitman
Martin Brothers
C. H. Underwood
C. H. Daggett
H. C. Merryman
W. C. Van Emon

E. R. Reames
Leslie Rogers
Burge W. Mason
F. H. Mills
Ross Nickerson
H. N. Moe
Joe McDonald
J. J. Beckley
Dr. W. A. Leonard
J. F. Daggett

Dr. E. D. Johnson
A. M. Collier
John Siemens, Jr.
Geo. C. Ulrich
E. W. Vannice
Geo. Watt
W. O. Robertson
Will G. Wilson
H. M. Manning
W. H. Robertson

Season tickets for the three concerts will be on sale next week at Shepherd's Piano Depot and by solicitors. Prices: $5.00 and $4.00 each, including tax and reserved seats.

PRIVILEGE——

Secure your season tickets early and enjoy the best music ever brought to Klamath County and that the country affords.