LEARNS SUIT IS ENDED THEN PAYS THE MONEY.

When J. D. Derran saw in the Herald that the circuit court had dismissed the action of J. S. McClellan against him, he hunted up McClellan and paid the $90 which was the basis of the suit.

"I didn't know anything about the suit until I saw it in the paper," he said, "or I would have paid him before."

Work in the third degree was given to a class of seven at the meeting of Ewauna encampment, No. 46, last night. Following the business meeting and ritualistic work a light banquet was served. There were a large number of members in attendance.

THE CARDINAL.

A sturdy man
A heart true blue.
A Godly man
Courageous too.
A stricken land.
A Hunnish foe.
The army's crushed
He's urged to go.
He shakes his head.
No, he will stay
Midst all the dead
For a brighter day.
A Boche demand
To yield God's gold;
To give the souls,
Within his fold.
A firm reply.
No cowardice there.
The Hun grows shy
Beneath his stare.
Four years he stayed
Midst whistling shells;
Saved many a maid
From worse than Hell.
Peace came at last.
A joyous day
To Belgium and—
GOD'S MERCIER!

SPENT LOTS OF MONEY, HE SAYS

COULD FIND NOTHING TO HELP HIM UNTIL HE TOOK TANLAC. WIFE IS ALSO HELPED

W. O'Gorman, a well-known employee of the Oil Well Supply Co., and his wife, who reside at 611 East Fifth St., Los Angeles, are both enthusiastic in their praise of Tanlac, and made the following statements a few days ago:

"Tanlac just beats anything I have ever seen to build up a rundown man and put him back on his feet again," said Mr. O'Gorman. "For the past two years I have been going around with little life or strength about me, and I was so weak that when I got through with my work in the evenings I was almost exhausted. I had little or no appetite and what I ate did me more harm than good, and it seemed that I had a cold all the time and could never find anything that would drive it out of my system. I couldn't sleep good at night and when I got up every morning I would start coughing and for half an hour or more I would nearly cough my head off."

"I spent all kinds of money for medicines but nothing ever did me a particle of good until I began taking Tanlac, and I want to tell you Tanlac built me up so fast that it looked like it was made especially for me. I eat three big hearty meals every day, digest it perfectly and am gaining in weight and strength right along. I am not troubled any more with colds and the cough that used to bother me every morning has left me entirely. I am sleeping sound all night long and get up feeling fine and I have so much more strength and life about me that I just want to keep on the go all the time."

In relating her experience with the medicine Mrs. O'Gorman said: "I just can't think of anything that would be too good to say about Tanlac for it has made me a well and happy woman. Indigestion troubled me so bad I didn't care whether I ever ate anything or not for I knew if I did I would have terrible pains for hours afterwards. I was bothered more in the mornings than at any other time, and it just seemed that I could hardly stand the pains sometimes. I was losing my strength fast and all the time I went about feeling weak and draggy."

"My mother had tried Tanlac and it had done her so much good that she advised me to take it, and when I had finished four bottles I stopped taking it for I started gaining weight so fast that I was afraid I couldn't wear my clothes. Anyhow I wasn't after gain in weight so much as I wanted to be rid of the indigestion and those terrible pains in my stomach, and they had already been entirely overcome, so Tanlac had done its work and I didn't need to take any more. Everything tastes good to me now and I don't have a trouble of any kind. I can certainly join my husband in praising Tanlac for it was just the thing both of us needed."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorella by the James Merc. Co.—Adv.
