PEARL OIL GROWING IN FAVOR

More Pearl oil (kerosene) is being sold this year for heating, cooking and lighting than ever before, according to the Standard Oil company. Since the chilly weather has come, the demand for this convenient and economical fuel has almost exceeded the supply. Housewives everywhere are evidently coming to appreciate fully the comfort, convenience and economy of heating with a good oil heater and Pearl oil. There is no greater combination of chill and damp chasers anywhere.

Military statistics show 128,335 aliens who acquired citizenship after they had assumed the uniform of the United States.

The United States Employment Service at the end of the war had 350 offices with a personnel of 1700 and an administrative force at Washington of 300. During the 11 war months of 1918 the service placed 2,698,887 persons in employment out of a registration of 3,175,855.

Persons directly affected by labor disputes brought to the attention of the department during the year numbered 1,011,968, while the number indirectly affected was 1,333,072. During the year the department assigned commissioners of conciliation to 1780 cases, including 587 strikes, 1113 disputes and threatened strikes, 63 lockouts and 17 walkouts. Of these 1228 were adjusted, exclusive of 219 referred to the National War Labor board. The commissioners failed to make settlements in 111 cases.

Strong recommendations for the reviving and continuing of the Working Conditions service, which was instituted during the war to investigate working conditions and to recommend standards for their improvement, were made by the secretary.

He also urged legislation for the continuation of the U. S. Training service. "It is believed," he said, "that increased skill on the part of the workers, and its consequent stimulus toward greater production, is even more important in peace than in war."

AT THE THEATERS

Today is a red letter day in the history of motion pictures in this city, for it sees at the Liberty theatre the first photoplay independently produced and supervised by that eminent actor Mr. Frank Keenan.

It is indeed an interesting story which is unfolded in "The Master Man," dealing as it does with an unscrupulous attorney-general, boss of the political "machine" in his State, an iron-willed party leader, and of the wrecking of his schemes and intrigues through the influence of a woman.

There is nothing commonplace in "The Master Man." The story is intensely interesting. The play has been produced with every adjunct to artistic perfection which present day methods of production can attain to, and there is a treat in store for all picture lovers who attend the Liberty theatre tonight.

Art Hoxen, who plays "Nick Horton," the cow-puncher hero in "The Love Call," Billie Rhodes' latest production for Exhibitors Mutual, is a real cowboy, who has spent the greater part of his life in the plains. Hoxen, a husky giant, is a dare-devil horseman and pulls off many hair-raising stunts of reckless riding in "The Love Call."

He is also quite handy with his digits, and as he weighs two hundred and thirty, when in condition, has had many offers to help train prize-fighters for their bouts.

The latest offer is one from Jack Dempsey, who is to fight Willard for the heavyweight championship of the world. On account of his size, which approximates Willard's, Dempsey would like to have the cowboy-actor-pugilist as a sparring partner, but up to date, Hoxen has decided that he prefers to be "shot" by the camera rather than take a chance of having his classic map ruined for the films by the giant-killer, Dempsey.

"The Love Call" is to be shown at the Liberty tomorrow.

DAIRY PRODUCE MEN IN SESSION

PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 17.—Butter and cheese manufacturers of Oregon opened their state convention at the Hotel Portland, here today, members of the Oregon State Butter and Cheese Makers' association from all sections of the state being in attendance. The sessions of the convention will continue through tomorrow.

Besides exhibits of butter and cheese, for which many valuable prizes will be distributed, the program includes the reading of a number of technical papers on cheese and butter making, distribution and sale, besides papers by authorities of agricultural institutions.

Speakers scheduled to address the gatherings include:

A. H. Lea, of the state fair board; A. L. Tucker, Portland banker; E. B. Fitts, dairy extension specialist of Oregon Agricultural college; L. B. Zeimer, chief creamery inspector of Oregon; Fred Christenson, Tillamook; C. C. Chapman, Red Clover Cheese factory; T. S. Townsend, V. H. Kent, J. D. Mickle, J. A. Bunn, Myrtle Point, and A. Jensen, of the Mutual Creamery Company; C. L. McCoy, of Hawley, who has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the office of dairy and food commissioner, also is to speak.

Mayor George L. Baker of Portland, will greet and welcome the visitors at the opening session.

All exhibits were to be at the Portland hotel by December 12.

Officers of the association are: President, R. E. Cavett; vice president, R. S. Trask, Cottage Grove; secretary, V. D. Chappell; directors, R. E. Cavett, V. D. Chappell; H. V. Franklin, H. C. Raven and P. C. Jorgensen.

CHRISTMAS SING FRIDAY NIGHT.

There will be a Christmas Sing at Houston Opera House Friday night, participated in by the pupils of the high school and the upper grades of the Riverside and Central schools, under the direction of Miss Applegate. There will be no charge for admission and the singing will begin promptly at 8 o'clock.

BROKEN GLASS CUTS HAND.

Arthur Boleo cut his hand severely when he slipped and fell on an icy sidewalk, breaking a bottle that he was carrying. A surgeon took six stitches to close the wound.

The Herald would bring good cheer from Klamath County; not only during the Christmas season, but during every day in the year. Shop Early.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES OF PNEUMONIA AT NEW YORK HOTEL

Mrs. Arthur J. Wiggins died at Hotel Richmond, New York City at midnight, Saturday November 2 following a brief illness of bronchial pneumonia. Mrs. Wiggins was formerly Miss Cora Wiggins of this city, where she spent her childhood days, but has lived at Klamath Falls, Oregon for the last fifteen years. She came East during the summer, expecting to return West shortly. She is survived by her husband, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wiggins; her sisters, Mrs. Herbert E. Evans and Mrs. Harry Yetter and her niece, Miss Mildred Evans, all of Forty Fort.

The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock from the home of her sister, Mrs. Herbert Evans, 55 Walnut street, Forty Fort. Services were conducted by Rev. Joseph Waisley, pastor of Forty Fort Presbyterian Church. The pall bearers were Thomas Frey, Stanley and Charles Yetter, Roger Arner, Harry Root, S. F. Murray. Interment was in Oaklawn Cemetery.—Wilkesbarre (Pa) Record.

Note.—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Wiggins formerly owned the Keller cafe, here, now known as the Owl cafe.

LEGION TO GIVE FIRST OF PUBLIC DANCE SERIES.

The first of a series of public dances planned by the American Legion for the winter months will be held tomorrow night at the Houston Opera House. Dancing begins at 9 o'clock. Another heater has been installed to insure general comfort and a good time is promised everyone who attends. The dance is not for Legion members only but is open to all who wish to come.

DENY MASSACRE REPORT.

LONDON, Dec. 17.—Official denial of the report that hostile Persians had slaughtered the garrison of 1300 men at Meshed, Persia, is made by the war office, which declares the report is obviously bolshevik propaganda.

A New York genius has invented a suit of paper clothes. Won't fool the old newspaper men who know something about the price of paper.

No wonder Emma Goldman wants to stay in America. She admits her divorced husband in Russia is an ex-Kosher butcher.

The Associated Press again demonstrated its reliability when it refused to end the coal strike before the ending came.

The Corvallis Gazette Times uses a split infinitive to show the Portland Oregonian an error in grammar.

Now we can tell our grandchildren about the big wind of December, 1919.

FAMILY HEN IS REVENUE PRODUCER The income from a good hen is no small matter. In the $10,000 a year flock at the Oregon state hospital were a large number of O. A. C. bred "Oregon" that laid 500 or more eggs each per year. That's more than 25 dozen each. At 50 cents the value of the eggs for table use would be more than dollar a month per hen. The hatching value of these eggs is quadruple that. Time was and not so long ago when the family cow returned less profit. PICKED OVER? What They Say About "Broken Blossoms" "It stories can be told in this wonderful way upon the screen, then a new art has indeed arrived—an art as important as that of poetry or music. "It is the greatest step forward that we have known. You have immortalized yourself. I feel that a new era has dawned." Charles Hanson Towne, Editor of McClure's Magazine. "In one day the screen jumped five years. "Such a paradox is not the mere jargon it sounds, but the tribute of the most appreciative of the reviewers. As Miss Virginia Tracy of the New York Tribune says: 'It has the serene accomplishment of an artist who has exacted from himself nothing but perfection.' The Literary Digest. "A sincere human tragedy—that is what D. W. Griffith has had the courage and capacity to produce in 'BROKEN BLOSSOMS.' "A masterpiece in moving pictures." The New York Times, "Words, could they be made of spun silk and point lace, of poison fruit and foul vapors, never could have produced the storm of expression, the electrifying dramatic current of this Griffith pantomime. "IT IS AN ELOQUENT AND DRAMATIC FLIGHT BEYOND THE SPOKEN DRAMA. "Griffith is the most imaginative and sane American who ever revolutionized the theatre when it needed an emancipator." Amy Leslie, The Chicago Daily News. "'BROKEN BLOSSOMS' is the most tragic; the most beautiful thing that has ever reached the screen." Virginia Dale, The Chicago Journal. "While we always have been devoted to the pictures, we never really liked them nearly as well as the spoken drama, but 'BROKEN BLOSSOMS' never could be done so appealingly in any other medium. "When it was over we wanted to rush up to every one we met and cry, 'Oh, don't miss it—don't miss it!'" Harriot Underhill, The New York Tribune. "He has far exceeded the power of the written word. It would be impossible for the greatest master of language to picture the emotions as Griffith has perpetuated them in 'BROKEN BLOSSOMS.'" Louis Gardy, The New York Call.

Have sold the four houses advertised in these columns this month for the reason that they were very good values. HERE IS ANOTHER GOOD ONE A 7-room house and bath, cost $4,000.00 to build and could not be replaced for less than $6,500.00. Lot is beautiful and sightly, cost $1,000.00. Will sell this property for $3,000.00 with a cash payment of only $500.00; balance like rent. I have an auto and a bicycle to sell at a price. J. F. Maguire 125 North Seventh Street
