TOURNAMENT OVER; NEW ONE IS SCHEDULED

While Will Houston's team captured first honors in the Elks bowling tournament which closed Saturday, several other teams were in the running as a glance at the club standing below will show and Mason's team was a contender right up to the close of the series.

The tournament, which ran over a period of seven weeks, was largely in the nature of a warming up for a real honest to goodness ten weeks' series of games which starts next Monday evening, December 29. All plans are made, the teams named (six squads of four men each,) entry fees posted, rules formulated and everything shaped up to make the contests interesting, including several prizes for the best finishes. Three games will be played next week.

The contest just closed was a sort of informal affair, under general rules and without entry fees or prizes, designed to awaken interest in bowling and bring out the talent available, but the coming tournament will be along stricter lines and the teams that win the laurels will have their work cut out from the start.

While the bowlers took to the tournament idea like ducks to water, a great deal of credit for the interest that has been kindled in the healthful sport is given to Bogue Dale, who took over the management of the Elks alleys in October. He has worked indefatigably to keep everything moving smoothly and has met with a high degree of success.

Below are the individual scores averaged in the tournament and the final club standing:

AT THE THEATERS

Of interest to local picture fans is the appearance tonight of Jack Holt, a former Klamath Falls resident. Mr. Holt plays the lead opposite Bessie Barriscale in "Kitty Kelly" M. D. and his friends here will be glad to hear that the coming year will see Mr. Holt in the leading role of several important pictures now being produced.

Bessie Barriscale, the charming blonde star who is appearing in Robertson Cole releases distributed by Exhibitors Mutual, believes that the screen is the most potent developer of versatility even more so than the legitimate.

"Take my own case for instance. During the last nine months I have done no less than eight different roles, ranging from a slavey in an East side tenement house, to a temperamental Parisian danseuse; from a professional woman diver to an Oriental slave-girl. Some of my roles were of long-suffering wives in which the art of repression was dominant, such as "Josselyn's Wife" and "Tangled Threads." In "A Trick of Fate" I had to portray a meek girl of the South, and double as a temperamental actress. In "Kitty Kelly M. D.," the role assigned to me is entirely different to anything I have ever done. Kitty is a girl of spirit, one hundred per cent American, and is the type of girl that should appeal to the modern healthy woman who wants 'to do' things. I am certainly

In love with the character, it is so refreshing and gets away from the society drama 'eternal triangle.'

"But it surely does tax one's imagination and versatility to play for the screen, for very few actresses on the speaking stage do more than one role in a season. Sometimes not more than one role in three or four years."

"Kitty Kelly, M. D.," is the attraction at the Liberty tonight.
