The Chamber of Commerce of Cincinnati proposes to admit women to its membership.

Personal Mention

Mr. H. E. Hattfield and wife have arrived in Klamath Falls from New York and expect to make this their home.

Mrs. C. McCarthy of Dunsmuir is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Foster of Alameda Street. J. E. Bratton, who underwent an operation is sufficiently recovered to be moved from the Hospital to his home on Fourth Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stilts of Corning, Calif., are back among old friends for the holidays.

Mrs. Nettie Ellis of Algoma spent Christmas in Klamath Falls.

H. Gaddis of Merrill is here on a business visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bedford and family are here on their way to Portland and Spokane for a New Year visit. Mr. Bedford is a member of the Bedford & Crane Lumber company, operating on Sprague River.

Frank D. Lee, formerly of the Liberty Lumber company of Portland, now in business for himself, is in town calling on mill operators.

Miss Twyla Head, superintendent of schools for Klamath County, left yesterday morning for Portland to attend the Oregon State teachers' Association.

SHE WARS ON ROUGE AND TIGHT SKIRTS

Mrs. Martha May Rogers of Brooklyn, N. Y., has for 10 years devoted her time to the uplift of young women. Mostly she has worked through the M. E. church organizations, and it is expected special legislation in the spring will permit her to prefix her name with Rev. She says rouge and tight skirts are women's curse today.

WOLF, FOX, LYON, BAER, ENLIST IN THE MARINES.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Dec. 27.—"Wolf, Fox, Lyon," called the sergeant as he ushered three recruits into the Marine Corps Recruiting office here.

"It sounds like a menagerie," said the recruiting officer to the sergeant.

"Do you think we're signing up animal acts for a circus?"

"No, sir," replied the sergeant, "but there is still one more man to sign up, captain."

"Bring him in."

"Baer!" shouted the Sergeant and the fourth recruit entered.

The four recruits were James E. Fox of Gates, N. Y., James Baer, of Erie, Pa., George R. Wolf of Warren, Pa., and Charles Lyon of Rochester, N. Y.

One of the first medical schools for women was the New England Female Medical College, incorporated in 1850, but really founded in 1848, when a class of twelve women commenced a course of lectures.

ADVERTISING MAN OPENS AGENCY

Frank J. Sutherland, who was recently with the advertising department of The Herald, has severed his connection with this paper and established the Klamath Advertising agency. It is his plan to handle the advertising for business men of the city, preparing their copy, offering plans for sales and business development and otherwise acting in the capacity of publicity man for the firm that has not the time that this important branch should have. Already Mr. Sutherland has secured contracts from several of the big merchants of the city and the indications are that his new venture will meet with the success it deserves, for an agency of this kind was an urgent necessity in Klamath Falls.

CORK WOMEN ARE AGAINST HOME RULE

DUBLIN, Nov. 28.—(By Mail).—The Cork City Women's Unionist Association have passed a resolution protesting against any breach of the legislative union with Great Britain and declaring that events have shown that no measure of home rule within the empire will satisfy the extremists or put a stop to political agitation in Ireland.

ESTRAY NOTICE

A REAL PREPAREDNESS "BILL"

By J. P. McEVROY, Chicago Tribune

I differ with the prophet who declares we're on the bum. That when it comes to fighting, we're the residue and scum; We may not have a navy that amounts to thirty cents. Our army may be full of prunes and apertures and vents. But what care we for armies, or for navies, or for guns? For ammunition, strategy, or even sturdy sons? No enemy would dare to harm our humble habitats. We'd tell our William Farnum, and he'd kick 'em in the snout. We'd tell our William Farnum, and he'd slap 'em on the bum. For have you seen our Farnum slap an engine off the track? And chase a mob to helargon and sometimes half way back? And have you seen him stand a king upon his royal ear? And beat a faithful army with a palpitating smear? How gracefully he hits a big gazabo on the nose. And presto, undertakers and some flowers and repose! So do not fear the English, or the German or the Jap. Just notify Bill Farnum and he'll chase 'em off the map.

Then let us offer up our thanks that this is even thus; Let's thank a kindly Providence for taking care of us. For handing us a Farnum to protect our kith and kin; A Farnum who can give the foe a swift one on the chin; For should a foreign country grow perniciously or raw, We'll laugh our girlish tee hee hee and likewise haw haw haw; Have we not William Farnum to defend the mountain pass? We have, and William Farnum, girls, can run 'em out of gas.
