TUNIC NEEDS NO TONIC TO STAY ON JOB

The tunic refuses to leave fashion's fold as this fetching house dress for the miss shows. Virtually the same lines are in skirt, tunic and waist as were first shown in this popular model. The touch of fur is sufficient trimming for this Indian head serge.

VAUDEVILLE AT THE STAR

Genuine Novelty Vaudeville May be Seen at Popular Picture House Tonight and tomorrow.

Snyder and Hines, masters of skateology, roller kings, professors extraordinary of the science and the art of dancing, spinning, jumping and posing on wheels bring a genuine novelty to the Star Theatre tonight in their presentation of skating de luxe, executed on a maple panel stage floor, and in fancy dress.

Snyder and Hines are more than average capable artists. They have made their act pleasing by the ease with which they perform their gyrations, and by the effectiveness of their costumes. 29-11

It is estimated that throughout the world blind men outnumber blind women in the proportion of two to one.

There are records of snuff having been used in the West Indies and elsewhere long before the introduction of tobacco to Europe.

WOMAN'S TUXEDO IS FOR OUTDOOR WEAR

First is was the sweater. Then came the scarf in varying sizes and shapes. Now it is the sweater and scarf combined in what is known as the Tuxedo model for women. Notice the fringed bottom to the high-grade worsted body. The plaid Tuxedo roll is of the Jacquard finish.

Kidnapped by a Murderer

The man who had murdered her mother kidnapped little Nonette Delisle. He took her with him to Alaska where he subdued her by constant threats and ill treatment. Years later he brought her back to the place from which he had taken her. And there she was able to save her young sister from the hands of this same man. You'll see how this is done when you see the new World Picture.
