Mint Jell

Try Mint Jiffy-Jell with roast lamb or cold meats. It is vastly better than mint sauce. Try Jiffy-Jell desserts with their real fruit flavors in essence form, in vials. Each is so rich in condensed fruit juice that it makes a real fruit dainty. Yet they cost no more than old-style gelatine desserts.

GIRL'S OUTFIT COST DOUBLES IN FIVE YEARS

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—The mother of an 18-year-old New York girl who for several years has kept an account of the cost of her daughter's wardrobe, in a letter to a local newspaper, recently complained about the present prices of clothing, shoes, gloves, hats, etc. Some interesting figures on what it costs to outfit a young woman today, as compared with five years ago, are afforded by quotations from a number of average priced local shops, as follows:

Shoes, 1914, $5; 1919, $12 to $18.
Stockings (silk), 1914, $1.25 to $1.50; 1919, $3.50 and up.
Underwear, 1914, $3.50 to $5; 1919, $10 and up.
Silk bloomers, 1914, $2.50 a pair; 1919, $6.50 a pair.
Undervest, 1914, $1 to $1.50; 1919, $3.50 to $4.
Petticoat (silk), 1914, $4 to $5; 1919, $12 to $13.
Waist (georgette), 1914, $10 to $15; 1919, $25 and up.
Suit (woolen), 1914, $75; 1919, $150 and up.
Hat, 1914, $5; 1919, $25 and up.
Fur neckpiece, 1914, $35 to $50; 1919, $150 and up.
Muff, 1914, $50; 1919, $100 and up.
Gloves, 1914, $1.50; 1919, $4.
Total, 1914, $193.75 to $217; 1919, $476 to $486 and up.

The foregoing applies to what the shopkeepers regard as a "moderate" wardrobe. Serges, formerly the cheapest and most common dress material and which, before the war, could be bought for $1 to $1.25 a yard, are now retailing at $4 to $5 for the same quality. Velvetens, another popular dress material, could be bought five years ago for $1 and $1.25 a yard and now are bringing $4.50 to $6.50. The biggest advances, dealers say, have been in cotton and wool and not so much in silk. Babies' buckskin shoes which normally sold at $3.50 are now priced at $7 to $9 a pair.

Many women of means, the retailers say, are paying as much as $250 and up for a pair of silk stockings but these are beaded with pearls and are decorated with fine hand embroidery. The public demand for furs, in spite of the advance of 50 to 75 per cent since spring, dealers say, is 50 per cent greater this winter than last season. Fur coats costing many thousands of dollars are more in evidence than ever before in New York.

An artist for a New York fashion paper recently sketched a coat, suit and dress at a local factory, the combined wholesale price of which was $975. The coat, a coarse wool fabric, was marked $375, the georgette dress at $275 and the suit at $325. Here were three garments, which, sold at retail, would cost the buyer at least $1500, it was said. Such instances in Fifth avenue shops of how the high-cost-of-living has hit the rich are by no means rare. One window displays a rose white blouse for $3500.

"Untold millions are being invested in furs this year by American women," said J. W. Argenbright, a Brooklyn importer, "and the demand is less exclusive and more widespread than ever before, showing that prosperity is general. Coats costing from $50,000 to $85,000 are uncommon but they are being bought."

"America is not only importing the finest Russian sables but is producing the best specimens of the black and silver fox, mink, seal, otter, beaver, fisher, wolverine, bear, lynx, badger, skunk, raccoon and muskrat. All these and many others, in hundreds of varieties, from the richest and costliest to the moderately priced are domestic products."

Reports that wealthy Americans had representatives abroad buying up so-called "royal" furs were dismissed as nonsensical by Mr. Argenbright. For 75 years, he said, there had been no such thing as "crown" sables. Ermine also is less popular than ever in the history of the trade. "It is an old and mistaken idea," he said, "that the finest Russian sables are not shipped outside of that market, these skins being supposed to be the former crown Russian sables. In former years, when sables were not so expensive, natives in the interior used to pay their taxes with pelts. In those days the enterprising fur collector had not penetrated the wilds of the Siberian forests. It was the custom of the trappers to dispose of their season's catch to the Russian government, but since sables have become so much in demand and the prices are so high, the natives have found they can do much better selling directly to the collectors who come from all parts of America and Europe."

Women smugglers are said to have become almost as numerous as men in the contraband trade which is being carried on between the occupied and unoccupied territories of Germany.

CHANDLER SIX

Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

Cars of Comfort in ALL Seasons

YOU may laugh at the rains and the snows and the winds—if you have a Chandler Sedan or Coupe. In fair weather or foul there are no more pleasing cars than these two.

Both are of handsome lines and finish, luxuriously upholstered and uncommonly restful in the comfort of their cushions. The Sedan seats seven persons, when the auxiliary chairs are used, and the Coupe seats four.

The highest development of the modern coachmaker's art is seen in these two handsome Chandler closed cars. Yet, mounted on the standard Chandler chassis, distinguished above others for its really marvelous motor, they are most fairly priced.

The Chandler Sedan and Coupe are the selection of discriminating purchasers. May we show you these beautiful cars?
