The Elks gave another of their delightful dancing parties at the Elks Temple New Years' Eve and all those who had the good fortune to attend report a delightful time.

Miss Miriam Martin, who is attending Miss Head's school for girls in Berkeley and who has been visiting with relatives and friends in this city over the holidays, returned to her studies this morning.

Mrs. Andrew Collier entertained the Kedron Club at her lovely new home on Third Street last Tuesday evening.

Miss Inez Graham will be hostess to the 500 Club of which she is a member on Saturday evening. The guests will be Misses Minnie Barnum, Fay Hogue, Nellie and Esther McAndrews, Jennie and Anna May Johnston, Walve Drew, Jessie and Elsie Ford, Mrs. Pearl Leavitt Robinson and Mrs. Orva Orem Earnest.

A jolly party was given at the home of Mrs. E. J. Mayer on Washington street last Friday evening. The evening was spent with cards and music, after which a novelty waffle supper was served. Those present were: Lotta Caldwell, Edgar McCollum, Thelma Gibson, Bernard Hackland, Earl Carson, Josephine McClain, Evelyn Grimes, Maud Miller, Forest Miller, Mary McCormack, Tomosa Hinajose, Frank McClain, Ray Trimble, Inez Bell, Ruth Miller, Rev. Trimble, A. Lambert, Anna Hackland, Valerie Gibson and Mrs. E. J. Mayer.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Haley will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary next Tuesday, January 6, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Florence Holbrook, 617 Alameda street. Mr. and Mrs. Haley came here from Eugene about five weeks ago. They have lived at Eugene for nearly eight years.

Mr. and Mrs. Haley were married at South Whitley, Indiana, January 6, 1870. The bride's name was Mary C. Smith. They lived in Illinois for the first three years of their married life, then moved to Ohio where they resided for 30 years. Next they tried South Dakota for a year and a half and then came to Oregon.

Two daughters are living, Mrs. Holbrook of this city, and Mrs. Elvina Powell, who lives near Malin, both of whom will be present at the golden wedding observance. Five grand-children, three of the Holbrook and two of the Powell family, will also be present.

Miss Mary Ball was happily surprised by a number of her friends Monday evening who came to bid her farewell before her departure today for San Jose, where she goes to attend Normal school for the remainder of the year.

One of the most enjoyable social events imaginable occurred New Years' day, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Groesbeck at Ninth and Lincoln Streets when the ladies of the P. E. O. Sorority entertained their husbands and families in a big get together dinner. This is the first feature of this nature to be given since the Chapter was installed here and judging from its entire success there will be many others to look forward to. The guests assembled at the dinner hour and the ladies were seen returning with their husbands, the latter appearing unusually dilated and complacent late in the afternoon.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs.

CORRECTION

Through an error The Herald appended the name of H. J. Winters to the advertisement for the famous Edison Amberola phonograph, which appeared in this paper yesterday. The agency for this phonograph is held exclusively by the Klamath Falls Music House, of which George A. Wirtz is proprietor, and the mistake was made through a conflict in dates for the advertising for Mr. Winters and Mr. Wirtz and the unfamiliarity of a new employe with the agencies of these well known firms. The advertisement is reprinted today with the correct name and address and special attention is called to it so as to remove any mistake that may have arisen through its publication yesterday.
