QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder troubles you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

OREGON BREVITIES

BEND, Jan. 6.—Unanimous selection of officers for the Bend Commercial club characterized the balloting of the annual meeting of the business men's organization held Wednesday. Those chosen for the coming year are: D. G. McPherson, president; J. A. Eastes, vice president; R. A. Ward, secretary-treasurer; J. P. Keyes, E. P. Mehaffey, C. S. Hudson and J. P. Hennessey, directors.

THE DALLES, Jan. 6.—Following an outbreak of rabies among the dogs of this city, Health Officer Dr. Fred Thompson has issued a mandate that all canines either be muzzled or kept within the home. Gertrude Dohm, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dohm, was bitten by an infected dog and has been sent to Portland to take the anti-hydrophobia cure.

ROSEBURG, Jan. 6.—That the two men arrested when their car became stalled at Carnes, 12 miles south of Roseburg, are paroled convicts is the belief of local authorities. Their descriptions are said to tally with those of two released from a California prison.

SALEM, Jan. 6.—Broad powers for the physical and vocational rehabilitation of industrial cripples in Oregon will be bestowed upon the state industrial accident commission if the legislative program adopted by the sub-committee of the conference committee of 15 recently named to consider proposed increases in compensation for injured workmen, is passed by the special session of the legislature next month.

PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—Dr. J. W. Morrow, Democratic national committeeman for Oregon, has left for Washington, D. C., accompanied by Mrs. Morrow, where he will attend the meeting of the national committee, which has been called for January 8, Jackson day.

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 6.—The federal land bank of Spokane distributed $100,000 in dividends to farm associations in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana during 1919, besides paying all its own expenses, according to the report of D. G. O'Shea, president, today. In addition, there is in the bank a large surplus, O'Shea reported.

The bank also repaid to the United States government $250,000 subscribed, at the inauguration of the bank.

PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—F. N. Harouin, a teacher in the Portland high school of commerce and secretary of the commerce section of the Oregon State Teachers' Association, is the organizer of the Oregon State Junior Chamber of Commerce, which will have its first meeting next Wednesday at the Chamber of Commerce building.

The object of this new organization, of which all high school and college students automatically become members, is to interest the students in civic affairs. Its plan of organization and activity is practically identical to that of the State Chamber of Commerce.

Mrs. Winnie Braden, at present in the office of secretary of the State Chamber of Commerce, will be secretary also of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

SALEM, Jan. 6.—Members of both the fisheries and game committees of the senate and house of the state legislature have been called for a joint session to be held here today by Governor Olcott. An invitation also is extended to anyone conscientiously interested in gaining "a definite and amicable solution of the fish and game problems of the state," to be present at the meeting.

"With the proposed joint meeting of the committees from both the senate and the house I am hopeful that some concrete solution may be reached as to fish and game matters for presentation to the legislature the following week," said the governor. "It is my intention to present to the joint committee the recommendations I will have to make to the legislature relative to the segregation of the commercial and sportsmen's interests and such other suggestions as I may deem pertinent."

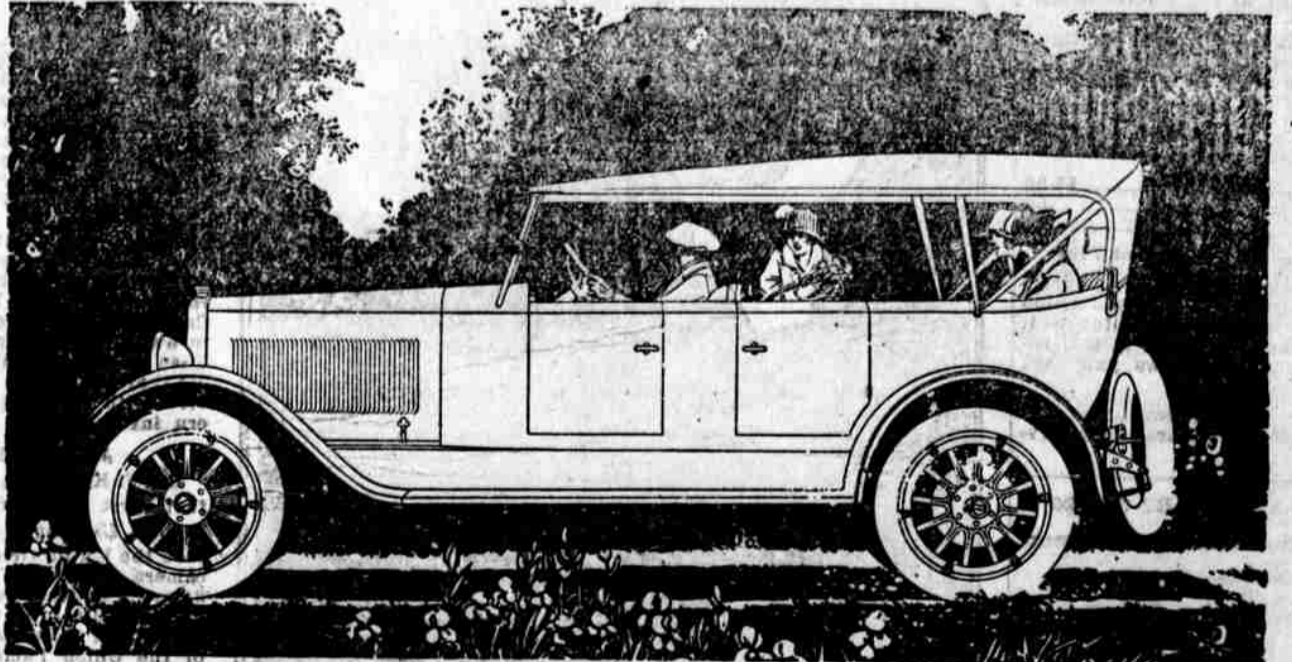

MEDFORD, Jan. 6.—At a meeting Monday night a number of Republican women formed a General Leonard club, which will take an active part in developing sentiment in Jackson county in favor of General Wood in the residential primary campaign.

A mass meeting has been set for next Monday night, when it is expected officers will be elected and definite plans outlined.

SALEM, Jan. 6.—That Oregon is

CHANDLER SIX

Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

Chandler Strides into Full Leadership

If there has ever been any question as to Chandler leadership of the medium-priced fine car field, it is answered now. The great Chandler Six is sweeping its market. It displaces less efficient cars. It steps in to serve those who previously have chosen only high-priced cars. And it pleases everywhere.

From two thousand to three thousand discriminating Americans bought Chandler cars—open and closed—every month this Fall. And at no time has the demand been fully met. Thousands have waited months for their new Chandlers, and have felt repaid for waiting.

Nothing could more clearly show the regard in which America holds the Chandler Six, than the patience with which these thousands have waited for weeks and months for their Chandlers. They waited because they knew what they were waiting for—because they knew it was worth waiting for.

steadily growing, both with regard to population and industries, is indicated in a report prepared by Sam A. Koze, assistant secretary of state, showing that the department transacted more business during the year just closed than ever before.

THE DALLES, Jan. 6.—Asserting that he is certain from evidence collected that his brother has met with foul play here, Charles Rees of Vancouver, Wash., arrived here today searching The Dalles and surrounding country for traces of August H. Rees, shepherd, who was last seen in this city on September 8.

ALBANY, Jan. 6.—Marriages outnumbered divorces more than seven to one in Linn county during 1919. A total of 223 marriage licenses were issued at the county clerk's office here during the year and only 30 divorce decrees were entered in the circuit court of Linn county in the same period.

CORVALLIS, Jan. 6.—The extension department of the Oregon Agricultural college has started a series of schools to be held in the various counties of the state. The schools will last for a week in each county and will be under the management of the extension department and the county agents. The schools will open January 19.

SALEM, Jan. 6.—The city of Roseburg, through Mayor Hamilton and City Recorder Whipple, has filed application with the state engineer for the appropriation of 1000 second-foot of water from the North river for the irrigation of 120 acres of fruit land in Josephine county, according to a request filed with the engineer.

SALEM, Jan. 6.—That E. L. Hill kidnapped his own daughter after he gained her release from a local school on the ruse that her grandfather was ill and is fleeing with the child to parts unknown, was the charge made to the police here today by Mrs. Hill.

GOLD HILL, Jan. 6.—Belated news has reached here of the finding of J. B. Welch, 86, who had fallen from his horse near his lone cabin 20 miles from Gold Hill and suffered a double fracture of his right leg; he crawled a few feet to a drift of leaves where he was helpless for 32 hours.

SALEM, Jan. 6.—Because of the eleventh-hour rush it will be impossible for the secretary of state to mail all 1920 motor vehicle license plates for which applicants have been received before January 15, according to announcement made here today.

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Jan. 6.—Resolutions were unanimously adopted here by the conference on mixed feeds to be sent to the Oregon state legislature requesting the adoption of uniform feed laws, with some minor changes to be suggested by a representative committee of 12 men which was appointed.
