they are known the board will be fully vindicated. We are confident also that the legislature will find that there is no substantial basis to the charges made by certain sportsmen against the board in the administration of its trust.

We take the liberty, also, of expressing the desire that the legislature may see fit to invite all critics of the game commission in the Finley matter or any other matter to appear in the end that they may have an opportunity to present their charges or offer their criticisms.

An investigation of the scope suggested by the commission will probably be assigned to a committee composed of the joint fish and game committees of the senate and house, and this joint committee can carry on its hearings during the session, or even afterward, and make its report to the governor.

The inquiry will be an opportunity for the opponents of the commission to present all the objections they have against the policies of the commission, or the personnel of that body.—Oregonian.

FISH AND GAME BOARD COURTS INVESTIGATION

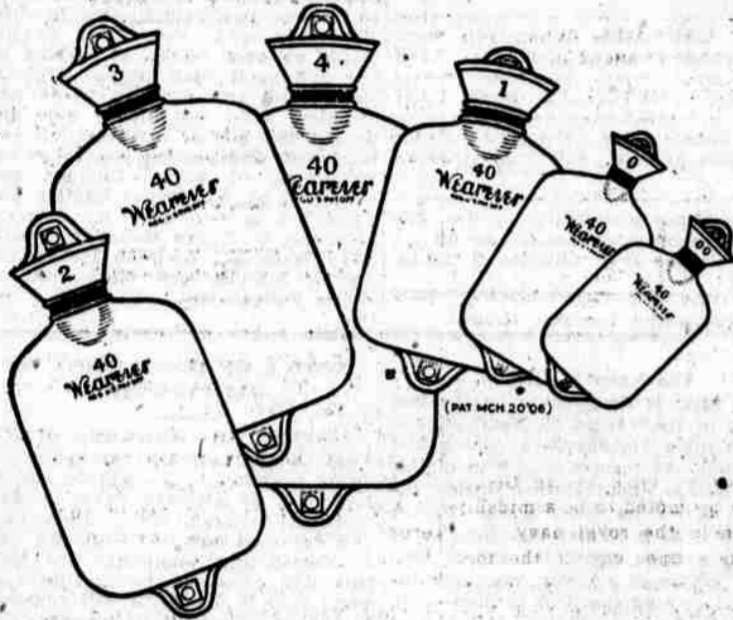

Investigation, thorough and complete, of the affairs of the state fish and game commission is to be asked at the hands of the special session of the legislature by four of the five members of the commission.

angles of the fish and game controversy. The legislature has power to summon witnesses and by use of this authority can bring to Salem everyone who has anything of importance to contribute in the nature of facts.

Determination of the commission to make the request is contained in the following statement:

The four undersigned members of the Oregon fish and game commission announce their purpose to request an investigation of its affairs by the legislature, through a committee or otherwise. We have in mind particularly the controversy growing out of the unanimous action of the board in creating a vacancy in the office of state biologist, thus relieving W. F. Finley of his duties as a public official.

It is our hope that all the facts regarding the differences between Mr. Finley and the board, and our reasons for dropping him from our service, will be fully reviewed by the legislature. We are confident that when

JUST ONE THING COUNTS IN RUBBER AND THAT IS QUALITY

Quality is the only thing that demonstrates long life, proper usage and economy of purchase in rubber. You do not buy a hot water bottle for looks, although many of them are made in fancy designs and pretty colors. You buy a hot water bottle for quality, and that is what we guarantee in every hot water bottle we sell.

THE LONGER THEY WEAR, THE CHEAPER THEY ARE BUY THEM GUARANTEED

Do not trust your own eyes because of the appearance of a hot water bottle, but insist on buying only rubber that is guaranteed. If we say it is good, it will be good—if it isn't, we will make it good. That is the value of the guarantee that assures you of quality, because the "longer they wear, the cheaper they are."

BROWNELL BUYS LOT ON KLAMATH

Will Klamath Avenue or Sixth street be the automobile center of the city? This is a question that the sale of the southwest corner of Fifth and Klamath avenue is going to start going anew. It has just been purchased by L. L. Brownell, owner of the Central Garage.

It is understood that J. F. Garrett also contemplates putting a garage on his property, thus making one solid block of garages—the only one in the city.

This is sure to have a strong influence in swinging the garage business to Klamath Avenue, and its coming will mean much to the development of this thoroughfare.

FORECLOSURE SUIT TRIAL COMPLETED

Testimony in the foreclosure action of C. T. Oliver against M. H. Barney, William Bray and others, was taken before Judge Kuykendall in the circuit court yesterday. The court's decision is pending.

The action is to foreclose a chattel mortgage for $500 on personal property on the old Reames ranch near this city. The mortgage was executed by Barney to secure a note. The land was afterward transferred and eventually purchased by Bray, who is included with others as a defendant having claims adverse to plaintiff.

MEXICANS LIKE YANKEE MUSIC

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 8.—American jazz music, which until recently has been received coldly by the Mexican public, is gaining in favor and no dance program or cafe concert here is now complete unless it includes three or four selections reminiscent of Broadway's whining saxophones and syncopated pianos.

Bands and orchestras abound here. The Mexican is a natural musician and the songs that have been written for him range from the wild rebel chant of the "La Curarachs" to the dreamy, romantic "Beautiful Mexico."

Concerts are given in the parks. Although termed "popular," they are made up for the most part of grand opera selections, and American ragtime as yet has not found a place on such programs. The Mexican is a lover of classical music.

AT THE THEATERS

William Fox will present "Checkers," the famous racing play, as a motion picture at the Liberty Theatre for a run of three days, starting today. Advance reports promise a picture of great pretension, superbly executed. Richard Stanton directed the work.

As a stage play "Checkers" was a classic. There are many big spectacular scenes in the film, such as an actual race at one of the large tracks, a thrilling train wreck in which a freight car containing several persons and a race horse topples into a river and a sensational scene in New York's Chinatown. "Checkers" will be shown at regular prices.
