REVIVAL DRAWS
LARGE CROWDS

The revival services which are being conducted by Dr. S. A. Danford, superintendent of the Klamath district, at the Methodist church, are attracting much attention and large audiences are turning out each afternoon and evening to hear the forceful sermons and the song service. Arthur H. Johnston, the song leader, has sung in some of the largest churches in America and has a masterful expression and splendid voice. His singing has commented upon by all who have had opportunity of hearing him as far beyond the ordinary.

The revival services are held daily during week days at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. and Sundays at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

BOURBON LEADERS
EXPRESS CONFIDENCE

PORTLAND, Jan. 8.—Perfection of the state organization before the end of today's session was expected to take place here today by Oregon Democratic leaders, who gathered preliminary to the Jackson Day banquet to be held tonight. Speeches occupied the morning session. Organization work is to be undertaken later today.

"We are going to elect a Democrat president in 1920," declared State Senator Walter Pierce, of La-Grande. If you doubt this just read what United States senators Lodge, Borah and Johnson, have been doing in the senate. The issue will be the League of Nations, whether national political leaders wish it or not, and on this issue Oregon will roll up majority for Democratic ticket.

Best yet. Herald Want Ads.

SPLENDID SINGING.

Don't fail to hear Johnston sing at the Methodist church every afternoon and evening at 2:30 and 7:30. He has led gospel singing in the leading churches in America. This is a rare chance to hear this great song leader. Everybody welcome and everything free.

HAY BUYERS ATTENTION.

The Klamath County Farm Bureau has a list of the owners of the small amount of hay left unsold in the valley. Anyone desiring hay may get in touch with the market through the Farm Bureau secretary at the County Agricultural Office. 13
