OFFFIELD'S ELECTION.

The result of yesterday's election comes as a distinct surprise to those who have disagreed with Mr. Offfield's stand on the questions at issue. It cannot be claimed that his success is due to the votes of any one section, for he carried every precinct by heavy majorities. There is just one conclusion to be reached: The people of the project, those who have the bill to pay, approve of the stand taken by Mr. Offfield and have delegated to him and Mr. Marshall authority to continue along the same course. What was their personal

Judgment now becomes a duty, one that believers in the American principle of the rule of the majority cannot consistently oppose.
The result is not a personal defeat for Mr. Dixon, any more than it is a personal victory for Mr. Offfield. Both men stood upon a platform that represented divergent views on questions of vital interest to the landowners. These questions were the ones voted upon, not the personality of the men. It means that the people of the project approve of the construction of the Link river dam; of the provision that was illegally slipped into the contract by the Reclamation Service; of the segregation of the power and power possibilities; of every stand taken by Mr. Offfield as a director, and since it is their business, we fail to see where others have any right for further criticism.

MUSIC TEACHER ENTHUSIASTIC

MISS CANTRIL DECLARES TAN-LAC IS BEST MEDICINE SHE EVER HEARD OF

"I am simply delighted over my wonderful improvement since I began taking Tanlac," was the enthusiastic statement made by Miss Louise Cantril, popular music teacher of 8405 Elm street, Los Angeles, Cal.
"For as long as I can remember my kidneys troubled me and I rarely ever got a good night's rest," she continued. "I lost my appetite completely and what I managed to swallow by sheer force of will would ferment and cause so much gas that my heart would palpitate terribly and at times I came near fainting. I fell off from one hundred and twenty pounds to ninety-eight and was so nervous and weak I had to give up my work.

"Medicines and treatments did not do me a bit of good and I lost faith in them. A friend of mine kept insisting that I try Tanlac and to please her I did. Now I can't thank her enough, for the way Tanlac helped me is nothing short of remarkable. My appetite came right back and I eat anything I want without the slightest trouble. My kidneys seem to be in perfect shape and I sleep all night long like a child. I have gained so much in weight and strength and am so happy I don't hesitate to say Tanlac is the best medicine I ever heard of."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., and in Lorella by the James Merc. Co.—Adv.

$10,000 in Prizes to Young Republicans for Best Platform Suggestions

Through the Republican National Committee, Mr. Truxton Beale, former United States minister to Persia and an ardent Republican, offers cash prizes aggregating $10,000 for the best platform suggestions by young Republicans of the country.

A first prize of $6,000 will be given for the best manuscript received; $3,000 for the second, and $1,000 for the third.

The judges proposed are Dr. David Jayne Hill, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler and Hon. Albert J. Beveridge. Mr. Beale's original proposal contemplated opening the competition to graduates of universities only, but he waived this limitation upon the suggestion of Chairman Hays that more good would result by opening the competition to all young men and women 25 years of age or under.

The chairman wrote:
"The Republican National Committee accepts with pleasure the offer made in your letter and will gladly co-operate in an effort to make the prizes a source of large usefulness. It is our opinion that more good will result if the competition be open for all young men and women 25 years of age or under, and we will proceed accordingly, if this is agreeable to you. Your suggestion as to judges is satisfactory, as is also the assumption by us of all expenses and detail in connection with the conduct of the contest. We will, with your permission, hereafter refer to the rewards as the Walker Blaine Beale prizes, in memory of your son, who was killed in the service. If you indicate your approval of these suggested changes we will proceed immediately."
Mr. Beale approved the changes and thanked the committee.

RULES OF CONTEST

To the young men and women of America: The Republican National Committee wishes to express its gratitude to Mr. Truxton Beale for his patriotic suggestion. The committee urges the popular participation in the coming national election and is eager for the active co-operation of the younger men and women of the nation, so many thousands of whom did their all in the late war.

The Republican party shall continue to be the instrument in this country to apply to new and changing conditions the wisdom of experience and the efficacy of an honest, zealous service. The delegates to the national convention will be glad of the opportunity to study the proposed platforms submitted by the young voters of the land.

We suggest that you adhere to the following rules of the prize contest:

- 1.—Submit four typewritten copies of your manuscript. Sign only one. Write on one side of the paper.
- 2.—Manuscripts must not exceed 5000 words.
- 3.—Send all manuscripts to "Walker Blaine Beale contest," Division of Young Voters, Republican National Committee, 923 Woodward bldg., Washington, D. C.
- 4.—All manuscripts must be in judge's hands not later than March 31, 1920.
- 5.—Announcement of prize winners will be made prior to the opening of the Republican national convention in 1920.

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

The North American Review, at Mr. Beale's suggestion, has been given the right of first publication of any manuscript passed upon by the judges.
