BLY CATTLE ARE WINTERING WELL

BLY, Jan. 24.—Bly cattle are coming through the winter season here in better shape than for many winters. There are about 8,000 head of cattle and horses wintering around Bly. Nine hundred head of cattle from the Bly section are also wintering on the Holliday ranch in Langell valley. It is said that there will be 3000 tons of hay left over there, on account of its being such a fine winter.

There have been from 100 to 175 head of cattle lost here every winter until this one. There is no snow here at present and old-timers say this condition has not happened before since 1885.

Although Bly is said to be the worst infection spot in the county for rabies there have been but few cases of that disease here this winter.

BOOZE RUNNERS FULL OF TRICKS

BUFFALO, Jan. 24.—Old tricks are being revived and new ones invented by smugglers who are matching their wits against those of the customs officers in an effort to bring contraband whiskey from Canada into the United States.

The tide of the whiskey movement which for more than two years flowed from the United States into Canada has turned back. Of the same smugglers who once took long chances to send liquor across the border into Canada now are attempting to evade the American instead of Canadian laws.

There has been a partial lifting of the ban in Canada. The order-in-council issued by the Dominion government in wartime which prohibited inter-provincial traffic in intoxicating liquor, was rescinded on December 31.

Ontario still has a dry law prohibiting the sale of liquor across bars or in anyway except by government vendor upon an order from a physician. This Ontario law, however, cannot prevent inter-province traffic by mail and express. Consequently Americans who want to take chances with the customs laws have experienced little difficulty in having liquor delivered at the United States border.

Some of the tricks used to evade detection by Canadian customs inspectors when the movement of liquor from the United States to Canada was in progress were very ingenious. Spare tires on automobiles turned out to be the receptacles for contraband "wet" goods. Partitioned, gasoline tanks served the same purpose. A hot water bottle used by a woman feigning illness was found to contain whiskey. A carload of scrap iron billed from Detroit to Buffalo over the Michigan Central Railroad was sidetracked somewhere in Ontario and whiskey was substituted for the iron. The liquor was seized at Buffalo.

Customs officers here expect a revival of these tricks and development of others in order to bring liquor from Canada into the United States. The force of inspectors on this side of the Niagara river from Buffalo to Fort Niagara has been increased.

JAP-AMERICAN PLAN TO CONFER

TOKIO, Jan. 24.—Premier Hara has promised his support for a conference of the Japan-American relations committee, composed of Japanese and Americans, to be held here next spring. Baron Shibusawa has announced that he expects agitation in California and in the United States. The American section of the committee was organized in the United States when Baron Shibusawa visited that country in 1915. After his return home the Japanese section was organized in Tokio with more than a score of prominent Japanese business men to co-operate with the American members.

A meeting of the committee now has been called here for the exchange of frank opinions regarding diplomatic, economic and other questions arising between Japan and the United States. It is expected that about 15 men including five or six from California and the others from the eastern states will come to Tokio to attend the meeting.

Government approval of the proposed conference was given at a reception recently held at the residence of the Premier. Many leading Japanese attended to exchange views on the promotion and a better understanding between the nations. Among them were Baron Shibusawa, Baron Sakotani, Baron Kondo, Manzo Kushida, Zenjiro Horikoshi, Junnosuke Inoue, governor of the bank of Japan; Chuji Kajiwara, president of the Yokohama Specie Bank; Baron Megata, Viscount Kaneko and Dr. Juichi Soyeda.

The Premier said he believed the conference would contribute to the advancement of friendliness between Japan and the United States and that he and other members of the cabinet had decided to give every possible support to it.
