SLOW PROGRESS IN GETTING I. W. W. JURY

MONTESANO, Wash., Jan. 28—Attorney Vandever, defending eleven I. W. W. members charged with the Centralia murders, during the examination of prospective jurors today charged that W. H. Abel, of the counsel for the prosecution, was employed by the lumber companies of the Gray's Harbor section to aid the prosecution.

Abel replied by saying that his opponent's statement was a "deliberate lie". The court stopped further argument. Vandever moved that Abel be removed as a prosecutor. It is believed that the jury may be secured in another week. More speed was shown today in examining the jury but only two have been tentatively accepted.

AT THE THEATERS

William Farnum is at the Liberty again tonight in "The Bondman" the tragic novel by Hall Caine. Mr. Farnum takes a dual role, playing the part of both father and son. The scenes are largely in Iceland and the life of Man and the story is faithfully carried out. In the climax, where Jason becomes the bondman for his half brother, Sunlocks, Mr. Farnum is given an excellent opportunity to display the great talent that has made him famous.

WORN NERVES

Nervous troubles, with headache, dizzy spells, queer pains and irregular kidneys, give reason to suspect kidney weakness and to try the remedy that has helped your neighbors. Ask your neighbor.

Mrs. M. E. Sevits, Klamath Falls, says: "I was subject to kidney disorders for a great many years. I had a weak feeling across the small of my back all the time. I couldn't stand very long as my back was so lame. My kidneys were in a very weak condition. I was so nervous and restless that I had to get up in the night and sit up for hours at a time. My feet and ankles swelled so badly, I could hardly get my shoes on. I took about six boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they cured me. Since then, I have enjoyed splendid health."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Sevits had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mrs., Buffalo, N. Y.
