

The House of Kuppenheimer Clothes

"Inside" Facts About Kuppenheimer Clothes

Have you ever wondered why a Kuppenheimer suit holds its shape better than the ordinary suit? The secret is in the exclusive Kuppenheimer construction, the care and skill of the making, and the quality all-wool fabrics.

No heavy padding is used. A special wool canvas interlining in the lapels and front of the coat gives that enduring shapeliness and softness.

Every little detail of a Kuppenheimer suit must pass a rigid inspection—seams, trimmings, threads, linings—everything.

To insure long wearing service, and shapeliness under the hardest conditions, Kuppenheimer woollens are first cold water shrunk and then tested as to sun, moisture and climatic effects. If they don't pass this exacting test in every respect, they can't qualify for a Kuppenheimer garment.

Not a single detail is eliminated in making Kuppenheimer Clothes live up to the reputation they have so justly earned as the finest ready-to-wear clothes in America.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Jesso Bailey that they are now located in Pasadena after having spent the past several weeks in Long Beach, where they went in their car. Mr. Bailey stated that they made the entire distance without trouble and had a delightful trip.

George K. Chapman left this morning on a business trip to Seattle, Wash., and to visit there with his brother and sister. He expects to be away for two weeks.

Keith Ambrose, recently reinstated as fire chief by the city council, resumed the duties of the position today. It has been nearly three years since Chief Ambrose quit the office to enlist in the marine corps. F. C. Miller, former fire chief, has taken a position with the mechanical department of the Judge Low garage.

George Dawson, who was formerly employed by K. Sugarman as window dresser and advertising writer, but who now travels for haberdashery for a Portland firm, is now in the city on one of his regular trips. Mr. Dawson will leave in the morning to cover the balance of his territory. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dawson have many friends in this city.

Mr. J. A. Perry, of the Golden Rule, was called to Roseburg this morning, on account of the death of his sister, Mrs. F. H. Patterson, who died suddenly Saturday evening as the result of ptomaine poisoning. Mrs. Patterson had a number of friends here.

COBURN MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT

E. L. Coburn, county clerk of Josephine county for the last four terms, is one of the first candidates to cast his hat into the ring for state office. Mr. Coburn desires the republican nomination for the office of secretary of state. In placing his qualifications before the primary electors, he makes the following statement:

In announcing my candidacy for the republican nomination for the office of secretary of state at the coming primaries, I do so with the feeling that I am amply qualified.

I am a native of Oregon, being born at Ashland, September 25, 1886. I have had a qualifying business experience, and at the present time am county clerk of Josephine county, having been elected to that office for four successive terms.

Oregon has probably as many natural resources as any state in the Union, and as a citizen and official I feel that they should have our earnest attention in order that we may not overlook anything that would help toward the state's development.

I am a believer in a bigger and a greater Oregon, and in the use of Oregon products, and feel that every effort in that direction should be encouraged. As a member of the board of control, I would do all in my power toward that end.

I am an advocate of good roads and feel that a constructive road building plan is not only a benefit to the rural communities but that it would also be beneficial to the future welfare of our state.

I am a thorough believer in irrigation and think that the farmers of this state should have consistent encouragement in matters pertaining to irrigation as well as other matters affecting them, as they are one of the main factors and standbys in the development of any state.

It seems to me that there should be a different national policy in the matter of forest protection, in order that our vast forests be not devastated as they have been during the past, and as an officer of the state I will do what I can to bring this about.

If elected to the office to which I aspire, I will give it my personal attention and conduct it on a business basis and to the best of my ability.

E. L. COBURN.

E. J. Lawrence of Merrill was in the city the last of the week on business.

EDMONDS MILL ON NEW SITE

The H. H. Edmonds sawmill, which was moved from Olene at the close of last season, is now established on Sprague river, three miles below Yainax. The mill will be operated hereafter under the name of the Saddle Mountain Lumber company.

Mr. Edmonds has just purchased eight large draft horses for logging operations and plans to start as soon as the weather is favorable. The Saddle Mountain Lumber company is planning to start building of a large new mill at Sprague river next spring. When completed the plant will have a capacity of 100,000 feet daily.

The Valley Lumber company has purchased the old Turner mill, which was bought by Mr. Campbell, when he sold his mill to Marion Nye. The mill is situated at Swan Lake and will be operated by the Valley Lumber company this season.

The DeArmond Brothers, who also operate in the Swan Lake district, are moving their mill further west, to take in a larger tract of timber, which they plan to manufacture this year.

The Management of the

WARREN HUNT HOSPITAL PHARMACY

OFFICE OF

DR. JOHN BRIDGEMAN, JR.

(LATE ASSISTANT TO PROF. HENRY KRAEMER, IN THE PHILADELPHIA COLLEGE OF PHARMACY)

Philadelphia, Pa.

While I do not have the pleasure of your acquaintance, Mr. Robinson, I certainly would fail in my duty and would not be true to my ideals and the ideals of my profession, if I allowed the mere fact of our not being personally acquainted to prevent me from extending my very best wishes for the fullest possible success of your noteworthy undertaking.

Every citizen has a just reason to be proud of the undertaking; in addition, the members of our profession have a just reason to be proud, for it is one more link in the chain of the emancipation of the profession of pharmacy, and the proof that it can be done. The chain so far has but few links in this country, but it is slowly being welded, and as every good movement has to have pioneers, I am glad to hail you as one in this great move for better pharmacy.

Very truly yours,

JOHN J. BRIDGEMAN, JR.
