ALLEGES MINER WAS OVERPAID

John Hampshire, trustee, has begun suit in the circuit court against George B. Fife to recover $2,390.39, an alleged overpayment in settling the share of the proceeds from mining operations in the Waldo unorganized mining district in Josephine county.

Plaintiff, as trustee, leased certain copper claims to C. E. Tucker, who sub-leased to Fife, with the provision that the lessee was to work the claims for a certain definite share in the profits. A number of carloads of ore were extracted during the summer of 1918 and shipped to the Tacoma Smelting company.

Settlement was made on the smelter receipts, but in final settlement with the smelting concern, plaintiff found that in computing freight charges and royalties sufficient deduction had not been made, and in consequence defendant received $2,390.39 in excess of the share to which he was rightfully entitled. C. F. Stone is one of counsel retained by the plaintiff.

GOVERNMENT ASKS BIDS ON INDIAN TIMBER

The Indian service is advertising for bids for 160,000 feet of white pine and other timber on 10,000 acres of unallotted land south of the Chiloquin Lumber company's mill (the Blockinger mill) on Sprague river. The minimum acceptable offer on pine is fixed at $3.50. The bids will be opened April 1.

Some of the new millionaires in Japan have taken up golf, which they play on links maintained in the most approved style.

RICHEY HEADS HUFF'S TRAINING

Sailor Bosco, built like a champion, but as yet an unknown quantity to local fans, will arrive Monday evening to pitch his local training camp in preparation for Wednesday night's bout with Billy Huff, at the opera house. The ex-tar has as trainer and sparring partner Bob Wall, who has a place in Pacific Coast ring records. Wall is incidentally looking for a chance for a local engagement.

Huff is in first-class condition and is working out daily with Earl Richey. Huff boxed several fast rounds with Richey yesterday and, despite his opponent's superior weight, showed up well in the sparring. Huff and Richey have joined forces until the latter meets O'Brien, which match will probably take place within the next three weeks. Richey is in excellent condition and a few weeks of swapping blows with Huff will bring him to a point where he will be a hard man to handle. The big fellow has mixed with the best of the bruisers, including several bouts with Jack Dempsey, and handles his bulk cleverly. The coming heavyweight contest is going to attract a number of outside fans and will give the boxing game a big impetus locally.

Speaking of outside attendance, a number of Weed citizens report that they will be in attendance Wednesday night to root for the sailor lad, who has done some boxing in the lumber town and has lots of friends there.

Papke still slings a heavy mit and his ability to take punishment has not deserted him since he fought here last month, according to the Sacramento Bee's account of his fight there last Wednesday night. His bout with Brown here next Wednesday promises to share honors with the main event. The Bee said:

"The best battle of the show was a real slugging match between Young Papke of this city and Sailor Suddington, who substituted for Al Prowse. Referee Eddie Hanlon pronounced the affair a draw, and the crowd was satisfied. Papke fought the best fight he has ever offered in this city, and the fans saw him hit the floor for the first time. In the second round a double knockdown occurred when both men landed heavy punches and dropped to the canvas. Suddington was up in an instant, while Papke took the advantage of the count.

Society

The Christian Woman's Board of Missions of the Christian church met at the beautiful home of Mrs. J. L. Beckley Thursday evening, with seventeen members and seventeen visitors present. The meeting was led by Mrs. Bainter and the following program was rendered:

Solo, by Alice Carson.
Bible study and prayer, by Rev. C. F. Trimble.

Review of an article by Dr. Hagman, a missionary to China, by Mrs. Jennie Seehorn.

The biography of Robert Morrison, by Rachel Applegate.
Vocal duet, by Mrs. Wirtz and Mr. Haydon.

Piano solo, by Mrs. Haydon.
A round table discussion of the "World Call," the organization's magazine.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. House, Mrs. Thomas, and some of the members of the Berean Sunday school class.

Five new members were added to the roll and arrangements were made for the entertainment of the state workers expected soon from Portland and Eugene.

Mrs. E. J. Mayer, president of the society, made an interesting talk on future work.

A newspaper of Willows, California, in writing of the concert given by the Willows Municipal band, has the following to say of Mrs. H. H. Gallagher, who was the soloist of the evening: "Her beautiful voice was never shown to better advantage than in the solos chosen. She has a wonderfully clear, sweet tone, and the spontaneous applause for an encore proved the appreciation of the audience." Mrs. Gallagher was Miss Marjorie McClure before her marriage and during her visit here this fall delighted her friends with several public appearances and gave a splendid concert for the benefit of the pipe organ fund of the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt have received word from Professor H. B. Passmore, the well-known vocal teacher, that he will make them a visit during the summer and will take a limited number of pupils during his stay in the city. Professor Passmore is the father of the famous Passmore trio, which has played in Klamath Falls on several occasions, and are well-known musicians of the Coast.

The Happy Hour club met at the home of Mrs. Harry Richardson, 41 South Riverside, on Tuesday. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in needlework, after which refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were: Mesdames George Biehn, R. A. Emmitt, Steinmetz, H. J. Winters, John Hamilton, C. I. Reckard, George L. Humphrey, Walter Perkins, Mary McClure, R. E. Wattenburg, K. G. Cummings, J. F. Goeller, Garret Van Riper, Everett McCollum, William Wilson, R. J. Sheets, and Jim Newnam.

Miss Delphine Graham, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Graham, celebrated her seventh birthday last Saturday with a delightful party. The children spent the afternoon playing games, after which delicious refreshments were served to them. Those present were: Ann Waters, Ruth Vanice, Lois Powell, Frederick Johnson, Joe Crook, Herbert and Delphine Graham.

Mrs. C. V. Fisher's Sunday school class held a basket social in the Methodist church last Friday evening. The baskets were sold very fast and a most enjoyable time was spent by those present.

Mrs. C. F. Winnek and Mrs. G. A. Massey entertained the A. N. W. club at the home of Mrs. Massey, in Hot Springs, on Wednesday. The afternoon was spent in needlework, after which delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames G. W. White, J. F. Goeller, S. E. Martin, Carey Ramsby, C. C. Hogue, R. H. Dunbar, George A. Wirtz, George Haydon, E. S. Phillips, K. G. Cummings, J. E. Bratton, Lou Rogers, and R. E. Wattenburg.

The enterprising people of Malin are to give a masque ball Saturday evening February 14th and the proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Malin Public Library. The music will be furnished by the Malin orchestra and from the reports of the hospitality of the people of that section of the county on all previous occasions it is expected that a large number from Klamath Falls will attend.

Mrs. Howard Dow entertained at a most delightful luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. Grace Vaughn of Manvelona, Michigan who is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Johnston.

Sunday evening a number of the close friends of Mrs. Jule Barlow, who leaves soon for two months study of instrumental music in San Francisco gathered for a little dinner in the Rex Cafe. Those who attended were: Mesdames Harry Ackley, Harry Poole, Mrs. Barlow, and the Misses Agnes Lee, Alice McCourt and Twyla Head.

Mrs. C. R. DeLap entertained a number of her friends Thursday afternoon at her home on South Riverside street. Needlework and conversation passed away the pleasant afternoon and the hostess served dainty refreshments before the guests departed. Those present were: Mesdames S. E. Milam, T. E. Griffith, Grace Griffith, R. Orem, Chester DeLap, Charles DeLap, Harry Richardson, Garret Van Riper, C. E. Mason, W. W. Lewis, J. W. Bryant, C. L. Lewis, W. E. Bodoin, Ella McMillan, Berl Brewbaker and Emma DeLap.

Miss Jennie Johnston will entertain the 300 club of which she is a member at her home on Canby street this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue entertained a number of their friends at cards last night at their home on High street. Five Hundred was the game of the evening and the prizes were awarded to Mrs. Alfred Collier and Mr. Ed Martin. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the game. The invited guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Collier, and Mrs. Collier's sister, Miss Porter of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Carey Ramsby, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wattenburg, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Yaden, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, Mr. Gulickson and Miss Faye Hogue.

The Ladies' Missionary society of the Baptist church met at the new home of Mrs. Lentz, in Mills Addition, Thursday afternoon. After a short business meeting of the club, Rev. Mr. Stewart gave a very interesting talk.

A lovely lunch was served by the hostess, and a most enjoyable time was had by all. Those present were: The Rev. Mr. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Davis, Mrs. B. S. Grigsby, Mrs. C. W. Miller, Mrs. Fred Nitchelium, Mrs. N. Sandham, Mrs. M. A. Hawkins, Mrs. Frank Bryant, Mrs. Bert Hawkins, Mrs. Staub, Mrs. W. D. Johnson, Mrs. Mary Seeds, Mrs. Lentz, Mrs. Ray Hunsaker, Ray Lee Hunsaker, Jr., and Mrs. J. R. Hershberger.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church held a social gathering Thursday afternoon, in the ladies' parlor of the new church building, corner Sixth and Pine streets. The affair was in the nature of a kitchen shower, many and various articles for use in the kitchen being brought by the guests. The afternoon quickly passed in social conversation, while busy needles hemmed tea towels. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostesses of the afternoon, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Gordon, and Mrs. Henry.

The guests present were: Miss Maud Carleton, Mrs. Burge Mascn, Mrs. Warren Kandy, Mrs. Herbert D. Newell, Mrs. A. B. Epperson, Mrs. M. S. West, Mrs. L. Gerber, Mrs. W. C. Ball, Mrs. F. T. Carlton.

The seventh and eighth grades of the Central school have been having a spelling match under the direction of their able teachers, Miss Edith Simeon and Miss Cora Rossiter. Both sides did splendidly but the eighth grade lost so it was decided that the losers should give a banquet to the winners and under the direction of Miss Virgil of the domestic science department the girls of the eighth grade prepared and served a banquet which proved that despite their poor spelling they were very excellent cooks and they have every right to challenge the seventh grade girls to prove themselves to be better hostesses. The decorations were in the class

DISEASE DECLINES.

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 7.—Infantile paralysis is on the decline in Montana, according to Miss Marion Fox of the child welfare department of the state board of health.

There are not more than 75 cases in the state, Miss Fox says, while a year ago there were 150. The period of convalescence from the disease is long—sometimes two years, and it is necessary that the patient have expert supervision during the time, she says.

FEED MEAT RATION TO FATTEN SWINE.

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 7.—Cooked horse meat, mixed with alfalfa and corn, is being used as foundation for swine at a plant near Boulder according to Harry Murtha, a horse buyer, who recently was in this city. He also is in the swine business. He says: horse meat is fed to the hogs up to

Influenza

We are told has already killed as many and vigorous persons in the world generally as were killed by bullets and disease in the World War.

BUT neither war nor influenza can make any material difference to members of the Mutual Life, because as against such startling incidents we have long since made abundant provisions.

INSURE—THERE ARE JUST AS MANY AND JUST AS SOUND REASONS FOR INSURING YOUR LIFE DURING DAYS OF PEACE AS THERE ARE FOR INSURING DURING TIMES OF WAR.

INSURE—IN A COMPANY THAT HAS AIMED, ABOVE ALL THINGS, TO ACHIEVE SAFETY. IN THESE DAYS SAFETY SOUNDS BETTER THAN CHEAPNESS.

SUCH A COMPANY IS THE MUTUAL LIFE, THE OLDEST LEGAL RESERVE COMPANY IN AMERICA. ITS FINANCIAL STRENGTH IS IMPREGNABLE, ITS SERVICE IS UNEXCELLED, AND ITS POLICIES CONTAIN THE BEST THAT THE SCIENCE OF LIFE INSURANCE HAS YET DEvised.

Our new 1920 Policies are winners. Nothing better.
