LABOR COUNCIL TO ENTERTAIN FRIENDS

The Central Labor Council will hold "open house" on the night of Lincoln's Birthday—Thursday, February 12—at Moose hall. All of the eight unions affiliated with the council will be on hand and they will endeavor to give a good time to all.

Refreshments will be served—and the fact that the culinary alliance is handling the arrangements for eats and drinks is in itself sufficient assurance of success. And the ladies affiliated with the unions will be on hand in numbers more than enough to take care of all details entrusted to them.

This entertainment, while under the auspices of the labor council, is not confined to unionists—all are invited. The Moose lodge is entitled to thanks for the use of the hall—and the boxmakers' union cancelled its meeting in order to let the council give its annual "get-together." There will be entertainment of various kinds, plenty to eat and smoke—and anyone coming to Moose hall on Thursday night will agree with the council that "they know how."

The committee in charge of the affair is C. W. Brown, Jack McCarthy, Billy Weber.

WILL HAVE FURLOUGH

Roy Fouch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Fouch, who enlisted in the Marine corps before declaration of war against Germany, arrived at Mare Island last November after being stationed 23 months in Managua, Nicaragua, and is expected home daily on a furlough to visit his parents. His four year term of enlistment will expire about the middle of next July.

WHITE PELICAN WILL GIVE VALENTINE BALL

The management of the White Pelican hotel announces that invitations have been sent out for a St. Valentine ball Saturday evening, beginning at 9 o'clock. Several affairs have been given at the hotel during the winter by the town's people and this is the first time the hotel management has had opportunity to reciprocate.

In sending out invitations no one was intentionally overlooked, says James Milne, resident manager, and he states further that if any person by some mischance was slighted he would consider it a favor if they would call him up and he will provide invitations.

AT THE THEATERS

It is hard to believe that any wealthy woman can grow tired of silks, satins and luxuries. But Patience Hilton, pride of the "four hundred," grew so bored with her life of ease that she decided to give poverty a trial. Although she had to wreck the family fortune to accomplish her ends, she did not hesitate, and turned burglar to do it.

The experiences of the impoverished family form the theme of a brand-new Peggy Hyland comedy which opens at the Liberty Theatre tonight.

MUSCLES FELT TIED IN KNOTS

Hudson Says "It Is Simply Wonderful What Tanlac Did For Me—Is Strong Enough to Go Back to Farm to Work On—More."

"If anybody had told me that Tanlac could do for me what it has done I would not have believed them," said C. R. Hudson, of Knoxville, Ill. "It freed me from rheumatism after twelve years of awful suffering," he continued, "and my stomach trouble is also gone."

"I was in such bad shape that I could scarcely digest a thing, and my solids would give me such cramps in my stomach that I could hardly stand them. Gas would form and affect my heart so bad I would get faint and have to lie down. The rheumatism made my legs swell all out of shape and the muscles felt like they were tied in knots. I couldn't straighten my right leg at all and it pained me so I could find no rest. At night it was especially bad and I simply rolled from one side of the bed to the other unable to get any sleep. Not being able to work any more I rented my farm and moved to town. I tried about every sort of medicine I ever heard of but got worse all the time."

"One day I heard some people talking about how much good Tanlac had done them and I decided to try it, and the way it took hold was simply wonderful. I can now eat anything I want, my rheumatism is all gone and I sleep like a log every night. I feel as strong and well as I ever did and I am going back to the farm able to do as much work as I did years ago. If anyone wants to know about Tanlac send them to me."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co. and in Lorella by the James Merc. Co.—adv.
