WOULD BE DELEGATE

TO G. O. P. CONVENTION

PENDLETON, Feb. 17.—Frank S. Carl, of Umatilla county, one of the prominent Republicans in eastern Oregon, has announced that he will be a candidate for delegate to the Republican national convention in Chicago, June 8, from the second congressional district, comprising the counties of eastern Oregon. Mr. Carl has been a life-long Republican. He is a substantial wheat farmer and has never been a candidate for any office. He is well-known throughout Oregon, and especially eastern Oregon, and there is no doubt of his selection at the primaries.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Haynes are the happy parents of a little daughter, Margaret Jane, born yesterday. Mrs. L. F. Willis is spending a few weeks in Talent, Ore., and Mrs. Quinn Willis, who has been spending several weeks with Mrs. Willis here, has returned to her home in Cottage Grove.

R. Helms and William Winningham have opened a market at 1026 Main street where they will carry a full line of fruits and vegetables as well as conduct a meat market.

L. F. Lozier, representing the Oregon Granite company of Medford, is in the city on business connected with his large marble and granite works.

Fred Carlisle of Dairy is in the city today on business.

Telegraph Tabloids

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Naval operation or control of all private radio stations assumed during war will be relinquished at midnight February 29.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—Great Britain has instructed Admiral de Robeck, at Constantinople, to announce there that the Allies have decided not to deprive Turkey of Constantinople. However, if the persecution of Armenians continues, the peace treaty with Turkey may be considerably modified, the admiral was told to announce.

HENCEFORTH FAITHFUL TO KLAMATH CLIMATE

"Never again!" These two words, shot out with gatling-gun speed, tells more than a large-sized volume what Thomas Martin thinks of California climate as compared with that to be found here in Klamath during the winter. His friends—and they are legion—are chaffing Mr. Martin today, and all because he returned last evening from Seabright, California, where he and Mrs. Martin have been spending the winter.

When he got home and learned the kind of weather that has been holding forth here since the middle of last December, he raised his hand above his head and declared "Never again," would he leave Old Klamath for the winter. And it is all because he and the cold ocean breeze could not make friends. Try as he would he could not cope with their penetrating proclivities after the sun went down, and as all of the houses were built on the theory of 24-hours of sunshine, he had difficulty to hold his own with them with his feet in the fireplace and a gas stove at his back. Notwithstanding the strenuousness of his tussle, he looks as hale and hearty as ever.
