"IT'S FINEST IN THE WORLD"

Mrs. Daley Gains Seventeen Pounds Taking Tanlac—Thought Case Was Hopeless—But is Now Able to Look After 8-room House With Ease.

"They said I couldn't live more than six months longer, but I'm still here and feeling fine," said Mrs. Mary Daley, of 530 Oak St., San Francisco, Cal.

"I have actually gained seventeen pounds since I began taking Tanlac," she continued, "and to look at me one wouldn't think that for several months I was unable to do my housework. I suffered from gastritis all the time, would bloat terribly and always felt miserable. I had no appetite and felt nauseated all the time. I was so nervous the little noise would startle me and it was almost impossible to get a good night's sleep. I had night sweats and was so run down and weak that the slightest exertion would almost exhaust me completely. I lost weight dreadfully and was told that I couldn't live six months at the rate I was then going down hill.

"Nothing helped me until I began taking Tanlac and I honestly believe it is the finest medicine in the world, for it has made me just like a new person. My appetite is splendid and I never have the slightest indigestion any more and I never enjoyed such fine and refreshing sleep in my life as I do now. My house has eight rooms and I do all the work with ease. Tanlac has been a god-send to me and I would be selfish not to tell others about it."

Tanlac is sold in Klamath Falls by the Star Drug Co., in Loretta by the James Merc. Co., and in Merrill by the Southern Oregon Drug Co.—adv.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—Lloyd George today offered the ambassadorship at Washington to the Earl of Reading, former ambassador, but he declined.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Rear Admiral Benson, chief of naval operations during the war, but now retired, was today selected by the President to succeed John Barton Payne as a member of the shipping board.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The house sub-committee which investigated northwest spruce production today filed a majority report condemning the war time aviation program as "a riot of waste" and a minority report defending it as "a record of achievement."

NEW YORK, Feb. 18.—William Gibbs McAdoo today announced that he would not permit his name to be used on the presidential primary ballots in the various states. He said that he advocated sending uninstructed delegates to the Democratic convention and that he believed the national interest should not be submerged in a contest of individual candidates.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Chairman Payne of the shipping board today recommended to the senate commerce committee the rejection of all bids received for the 30 former German passenger ships offered for sale by the shipping board. He asked authority to renew negotiations for the sale of the vessels for operation under the American flag.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—General March today told the house committee that American troops were sent into Russia and Siberia by President Wilson against the advice of General Bliss, while Bliss was a member of the Allied supreme war council. "I don't suppose, however, that President Wilson would disregard a strictly military proposal from Bliss."

GOING TO MAKE HIMSELF SOLID

Ross Nickerson, proprietor of the Rex Cafe, with a strategy cunningly conceived to completely corner the market in feminine hearts—and that popular restaurateur at present occupies a considerably large-sized niche in the hearts of lots of local ladies—has started something that is bound to get the whole bunch coming his way as soon as it is fairly in operation.

Mr. Nickerson has installed a Bakerite oven and an electric mixer and the outfit is working so well that Ross is ashamed to keep the product entirely for the gustatory satisfaction of Rex patrons. He's reached the stage now where he decided to place the surplus on the market and after March 1 the housewife can cease worrying about summer and super-heated ranges a-winging this way, for all her wants in the bread and pastry line can be satisfied by the accommodating Nickerson.

The electric mixer slings together a whole batch of stuff in less time than it takes to describe the operation. It mixes the cake batter in a pan—the operator removes the pan; substitutes another and it whips the cream to go between the layers.

The Bakerite oven is all that its name signifies, and of course its the latest in modern sanitary equipment or it couldn't find a place in the Rex.

TABLETS TO MARK WHERE MARINES FOUGHT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The erecting of a memorial in the vicinity of Belleau Wood to the U. S. marines who were killed in France is advocated by Major General George Barnett, commandant of the Marine Corps.

General Barnett thinks this work should be done before many changes are made in that locality and suggests the erection of a number of tablets, suitably inscribed, as the quickest and most suitable manner of commemorating the deeds of the U. S. marines and marking the ground on which they fought.

This method of marking historic ground has been successfully carried out at Gettysburg and Antietam. The secretary of the navy has approved the plan.

The Government Took Over

The Possession and Management of certain QUASI-public concerns, and, with the assistance of a large part of the previously formed organizations, realized some success in operation, but as a total result the experiment was a failure. Every day that passes furnishes evidence to justify this assertion. The property and businesses taken over have been or will be returned to the owners for the real reason, if not admitted, that the undertakings were too big and complicated for new and inexperienced chiefs to manage. What the results of this experiment will be as to the future value of the properties no one can, with accuracy, predict. It cannot be entirely satisfactory to the owners or, for some years at least, to the general public. There was clearly demonstrated during the war the value and practical benefit of private management as compared with public management. If it be said that government (or municipal) conduct of business has sometimes been successful, the answer is that the same business in the hands of private, responsible individuals, with capital and success at stake, would have resulted more favorably.
